CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

16 CFR Part 1000

Commission Organization and Functions

AGENCY: Consumer Product Safety Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Commission is revising its statement of organization and functions to reflect the elimination of the Directorate for Epidemiology and the transfer of its functions to the renamed Directorate for Epidemiology and Health Sciences, to the Directorate for Engineering Sciences, and to the Office of Information Systems.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 23, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joseph F. Rosenthal, Office of the General Counsel, Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, D.C. 20207, telephone 301-504-0980.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The sections describing the Directorate for Engineering Sciences, the Office of Information Services, and the former Directorates for Health Sciences and Epidemiology have been amended to reflect the transfer of functions from the former Directorate for Epidemiology. The injury data collection and analysis functions from the former Directorate for Epidemiology have been transferred to the new Directorate for Epidemiology and Health Sciences; the human factors research functions have been transferred to the Directorate for Engineering Sciences; and the National Injury Information Clearinghouse has been transferred to the Office of Information Services. Editorial changes have been made to the description of the Directorate for Engineering Sciences.

In addition, for consistency with section 1000.12, the Directorate for Laboratory Sciences has been added in section 1000.21 to the list of organizations over which the Assistant Executive Director for Hazard Identification and Reduction has line authority.

Since this rule relates solely to internal agency management, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b), notice and other public procedures are not required and it is effective immediately on the specified effective date. Further, this action is not a rule as defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601-612 and, thus, is exempt from the provisions of the Act.

List of Subjects in 16 CFR Part 1000

Organization and functions (government agencies).

Accordingly, 16 CFR part 1000 is amended as follows:

PART 1000—[AMENDED]

1. The authority citation for part 1000 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 552(a).

2. Section 1000.12 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.12 Organizational structure.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission is composed of the principal units listed in this section.

(a) The following units report directly to the Chairman of the Commission:

- (1) Office of the General Counsel;
- (2) Office of Congressional Relations;
- (3) Office of the Secretary;
- (4) Office of the Inspector General;
- (5) Office of Equal Employment Opportunity and Minority Enterprise;

(6) Office of the Executive Director.

(b) The following units report directly to the Executive Director of the Commission:

- (1) Office of the Budget;
- (2) Office of Hazard Identification and Reduction;
- (3) Office of Information and Public Affairs;
- (4) Office of Compliance;
- (5) Office of Planning and Evaluation;
- (6) Office of Human Resources Management;
- (7) Office of Information Services;
- (8) Directorate for Administration;
- (9) Directorate for Field Operations.

(c) The following units report directly to the Assistant Executive Director for Hazard Identification and Reduction:

- (1) Directorate for Economic Analysis;
- (2) Directorate for Epidemiology and Health Sciences;
- (3) Directorate for Engineering Sciences;
- (4) Directorate for Laboratory Sciences.

3. Section 1000.26 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.26 Office of Information Services.

The Office of Information Services, which is managed by the Assistant Executive Director for Information Services, is responsible for general policy, controlling and conducting managerial activities and operations relating to the collection, use, and dissemination of information by the agency. The Office manages the Commission's information system that supports all its program activities. The Office provides automated data processing and operational support for data collection, information retrieval, report generation, electronic mail, and statistical and mathematical operations of the agency. The Office maintains the agency's local and wide area networks and develops and supports other network applications. The Office develops plans for improving agency operations through the use of information technology. The Office's functional responsibilities include planning, organizing, and directing information resources management (including records management and related requirements), and the managing of the agency's management directives system. The Office administers the Commission's telecommunications services including the agency's toll-free Hotline by which the public reports hazardous consumer products and receives information about product recalls and product hazards. It also oversees operation of the Commission's Internet and fax-on-demand services. It administers the National Injury Information Clearinghouse.

4. Section 1000.27 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.27 Directorate for Epidemiology and Health Sciences.

The Directorate for Epidemiology and Health Sciences, which is managed by the Associate Executive Director for Epidemiology and Health Sciences, is responsible for injury analysis to identify and document information on consumer-product related hazards or hazard patterns, and for developing and implementing health science policies and programs. The Directorate collects data on consumer product-related hazards and potential hazards, determines the frequency, severity, and distribution of the various types of injuries, and investigates their causes. It collects health science, exposure, and medical data; reviews and evaluates toxicological, physiological, medical and chemical-related hazards; and determines exposure, uptake and metabolism, including information on population segments at risk. It assesses the effects of product safety standards and programs on consumer injuries and conducts epidemiological and health studies and research in the field of consumer product-related injuries. The Directorate performs risk assessments for chemical, physiological and physical hazards based on methods such as medical injury modeling and on injury and incident data for mechanical, thermal, chemical and electrical hazards in consumer products. The Directorate provides statistical support for other Commission organizations including, but not limited to, standards development, certification programs, and sampling for field inspection programs. It maintains and manages the National Electronic Injury Surveillance System (NEISS). It provides the Commission's primary source of technical expertise for implementation of the Poison Prevention Packaging Act. The Directorate assists in the development and evaluation of product safety standards and test methods based on the chemical, biological and medical, statistical and epidemiological sciences. It provides support to the Commission's regulatory development and enforcement activities. It manages hazard identification and analysis and hazard assessment and reduction projects as assigned. The Directorate provides liaison with the National Toxicology Program, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Occupational Health and Safety Administration, the Environmental Protection Agency, the Centers for Disease Control, other federal agencies and programs, and other organizations concerned with reducing the risk to consumers from exposure to all the hazards the Commission must address.

5. Section 1000.29 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.29 Directorate for Engineering Sciences.

The Directorate for Engineering Sciences, which is managed by the Associate Executive Director for Engineering Sciences, is responsible for developing technical policy for and implementing the Commission's engineering programs. The Directorate manages hazard assessment and reduction projects as assigned by the Office of Hazard Identification and Reduction; provides engineering technical support and product safety assessments for the Office of Compliance; provides engineering, scientific, and technical expertise to the Commission and Commission staff as requested; and provides engineering technical support to other Commission organizations, activities, and programs as needed. The Directorate develops and evaluates product safety standards, product safety tests and test methods, performance criteria, design specifications, and quality control standards for consumer products, based on engineering and scientific methods. It conducts engineering analysis and testing of the safety of consumer products, and evaluates and participates in the development of mandatory and voluntary standards for consumer products including engineering and human factors analyses in support of standards development and product compliance testing. The Directorate performs or monitors research for consumer products in a broad array of engineering disciplines including chemical, electrical, fire protection, human factors, and mechanical engineering. It conducts and coordinates engineering research, testing, and evaluation activities with other federal agencies, private industry, and consumer interest groups. The Directorate conducts human factors studies and research of consumer product related injuries, including evaluations of labels, signs and symbols, instructions, and other measures intended to address the human component of injury prevention. The Directorate provides technical supervision and direction of engineering activities including tests and analyses conducted in the field.

6. Section 1000.30 is removed and reserved.

7. Section 1000.32 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.32 Directorate for Administration.

The Directorate for Administration, which is managed by the Associate Executive Director for Administration, is responsible for formulating general administrative policies supporting the Commission in the areas of financial management, procurement, and general administrative support services including property and space management, physical security, printing, and warehousing. The Directorate is responsible for the payment, accounting, and reporting of all expenditures within the Commission and for operating and maintaining the Commission's accounting system and subsidiary Management Information System which allocates staff work time and costs to programs and projects.

8. In section 1000.21, the second sentence is revised to read as follows:

§ 1000.21 Office of Hazard Identification and Reduction.

* * * "The Office reports to the Executive Director, and has line authority over the Directorates for Epidemiology and Health Sciences, Economic Analysis, Engineering Sciences, and Laboratory Sciences." * *
