

Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure against Gaviota terminal Company (Gaviota).

Ultramar alleges that Gaviota has (1) collected transportation charges before February 1, 1994, without filing a tariff with the Commission, (2) that the rates Gaviota collected thereafter were unjust, unreasonable, and discriminatory, and (3) that rates Gaviota collected since September 1, 1995, were in excess of the applicable indexed ceiling rates under Order Nos. 561 and 561-A without an adequate showing that such rates are justified by a substantial divergence between actual costs and the index ceiling. Ultramar seeks the refund of all unlawful charges collected by Gaviota and the establishment of lawful rates which are just, reasonable and non-discriminatory. This includes all funds in excess of variable and operating costs for the period for which no tariffs were filed.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the instant complaint should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 30, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. Answers to this complaint shall be due on or before May 30, 1996.
