

targeting the collection to enterprises affected by changes in organization and/or operating characteristics.

A complementary collection, the 1997 Economic Censuses Refile Classification Survey, will obtain improved classification information from single-establishment enterprises and from selected small multiestablishment enterprises not covered by the 1996 COS. The Census Bureau will coordinate these collections so as to avoid duplication and minimize response burden on businesses.

II. Method of Collection

The 1996 COS will direct inquiries to 85,000 multiestablishment enterprises, which operate 1.1 million establishments. This panel will be drawn from the SSEL universe of nearly 200,000 multiestablishment enterprises, which operate 1.5 million establishments. Additionally, the panel will include approximately 1,000 new payroll tax entities that have become active during 1996. The procedure for constructing the COS panel selectively targets enterprises that are most likely to report changes in organization and/or operating characteristics, and it also targets new payroll tax entities that are most likely to report affiliation with a multiestablishment enterprise. In general, the selection of these units is based on enterprise size/complexity and administrative records indications. Additionally, the panel will include a small probability sample of the multiestablishment enterprises not selected by the targeting procedure.

The survey is conducted by mail canvass. More than 300 larger enterprises (accounting for approximately 22 percent of covered establishments) return their COS reports by automated/electronic means. All other survey respondents return a paper questionnaire. Data content is identical for all reporting modes. The instrument includes inquiries on ownership or control by a domestic parent, ownership or control by a foreign parent, and ownership of foreign affiliates. Further, the instrument lists an inventory of establishments belonging to the enterprise and its subsidiaries, and it requests updates to the inventory, including additions, deletions, and changes to information on Federal employer identification number, name and address, industrial classification, end-of-year operating status, mid-March employment, first quarter payroll, and annual payroll.

Announcement of an Opportunity To Join a Cooperative Research and Development Consortium for the Manufacturing Engineering Tool Kits Project AGENCY: National Institute of Standards and Technology, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of public meeting.

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) invites interested parties to attend a meeting on June 10–11, 1996 to discuss setting up a cooperative research consortium. The goal of the consortium is to develop an integrated tool kit for the manufacturing industry. Parties interested in participating in the consortium should be prepared to invest adequate resources in the collaboration and be firmly committed to the goal of developing an integrated tool kit.

The program will be within the scope and confines of The Federal Technology Transfer Act of 1986 (Public Law 99–502, 15 U.S.C. 3710a), which provides federal laboratories, including NIST, with the authority to enter into cooperative research agreements with qualified parties. Under this law, NIST may contribute personnel, equipment and facilities—but no funds—to the cooperative research program.

Members will be expected to make an in-kind contribution to the consortium's efforts in the form of test parts, product data, process data, manufacturing expertise, and personnel. The program is expected to last 18 months. This is not a grant program.

DATES: Interested parties should contact NIST to confirm their interest and learn the exact times and location at the address, telephone number or FAX number shown below no later than July 7, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Metrology Building, Room A127, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Gaithersburg, MD 20899.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Swee K. Leong, Telephone: 301–975–5426; FAX: 301–258–9749.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Participating companies will contribute product data, process data and a sample test part containing typical machining features that will be of similar size and complexity as those found on the company's product. National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) will use this information to develop test cases. NIST will use the data to integrate and demonstrate software and hardware systems within the Manufacturing Engineering Took Kit project. The project will produce a virtual manufacturing system to demonstrate how leading edge technology could be applied to automate the creation of NC programs for machining operations, to conduct virtual NC tape try out, and to validate a manufacturing data package. The collaborative effort would allow participating companies to evaluate these leading edge technologies and systems more thoroughly at NIST.
