Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; Survey to examine the relationship between juvenile delinquency and gang and nongang affiliation of Southeast Asian refugee youths.

Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval is being sought for the information collection listed below. This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register and allowed 60 days for public comment.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 Code of Federal Regulation, Part 1320.10. Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the item(s) contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to the Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Department of Justice Desk Officer, Washington, DC 20503. Additionally, comments may be submitted to OMB via facsimile to 202-395-7285. Comments may also be submitted to the Department of Justice (DOJ), Justice Management Division, Information Management and Security Staff, Attention: Department Clearance Officer, Suite 850, 1001 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20530. Additionally, comments may be submitted to DOJ via facsimile to 202-514-1534. Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following points:

(1) evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency/component, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) evaluate the accuracy of the agencies/component estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection: New survey to examine the relationship between juvenile delinquency and gang and nongang affiliation of Southeast Asian refugee youths.

(2) The title of the form/collection: Delinquency and Criminal Street Gang Affiliation Among Southeast Asian-American Youth Survey.

The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection. Form: None. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Primary: Primary: Delinquent and non-delinquent youth involved in gang or non-gang law violating groups and a parent or guardian. Other: None. The information collected is used to document the proportion of total juvenile delinquency for which gang and non-gang involved law-violating youth are responsible and to document the contribution of gang membership versus that of other law-violating youth groups to serious, violent and chronic juvenile careers.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: There will be 800 respondents and it will take about one hour to respond to the questions for a total of 800 hours.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 800 annual burden hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: July 31, 1996.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of July, 1996.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-32,320; Fort Smith Furniture, Fort Smith, AR

TA-W-32,440; Val Hall, Inc., Eugene, OR

TA-W-32,406; Unifi, Inc., Polyester Div., Staunton, VA

TA-W-32,385; Rocky Mount Mills, Rocky Mount, NC

TA-W-32,473; The G & O

Manufacturing Co., New Haven, CT

TA-W-32,476; Vanguard Products Corp., Berkeley Springs, WV

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-32,441; Plymouth Resources, Inc., Tulsa, OK

TA-W-32,337; Reeves Brothers, Inc., Woodruff, SC

TA-W-32,519; Automed, Inc., Arden Hills, MN

TA-W-32,348; General Motors Corp., Med-Size Car Div., North Tarrytown Assembly Plant, North Tarrytown, NY

TA-W-32,418; Eaton Corp., Engine Components Operations Annex, Marshall, MI

TA-W-32,122; Lightolier, Compton, CA

TA-W-32,319; Paragron Trade Brands, Inc., Oneonta, NY

Increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-32,552; Alvarado Cattle Co., Presidio, TX

TA-W-32,376; IPC Corinth Div., Inc., Corinth, MS

The workers' firm does not produce an article as required for certification under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-32,468; Dover Elevator Systems, Inc., Walnut, MS

The investigation revealed that criterion (2) and criterion (3) have not been met. Sales or production did not decline during the relevant period as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.

Affirmative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

TA-W-32,546; DM IV, Inc., Centerville, TN: June 26, 1995.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (P.L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a) Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of July, 1996.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) That imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) That there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

NAFTA-TAA-01027; Rocky Mount Mills, Rocky Mount, NC

NAFTA-TAA-00970; Lightolier, Compton, CA

NAFTA-TAA-01077; Beaufab Mills, Inc., Stroudsburg, PA

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Program Manager of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 16, 1996.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 16, 1996.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 15th day of July, 1996.

Russell Kile,
 Acting Program Manager, Policy & Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
