Kentucky Apparel LLP; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 29, 1996, applicable to all workers of Kentucky Apparel LLP, located in Burkesville, Kentucky. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 17, 1996 (61 FR 24960).

At the request of petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that worker separations will occur at other Kentucky Apparel plants, two in Scottsville and one in Holland, Kentucky. Each of these plants is scheduled to begin closing in September 18, 1996. The workers produce denim jeans.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of jeans. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Kentucky Apparel LLP in Scottsville and Holland, Kentucky.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-32,178 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Kentucky Apparel LLP, Located in Burkesville (TA-W-32,178), Scottsville (TA-W-32,178C) and Holland (TA-W-32,178D) Kentucky, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 11, 1995 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of August 1996.

Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance; Proposed Information Collection Request Submitted for Public Comment and Recommendations; ETA 9018

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance is soliciting comments concerning the proposed revised collection of the Business Confidential Data Request. A copy of the ICR is attached to this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before November 5, 1996. The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- * evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- * evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- * enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- * minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.
