

Tarpon states that the purpose of this filing is to revise its Annual Charge Adjustment surcharge in order to recover the Commission's annual charges for the 1996 fiscal year. Also note that Tarpon proposes to delete language related to certain surcharges which are no longer effective.

Tarpon states that copies of the filing have been mailed to its customers and interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person desiring to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
