

Antitrust Division*Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Bell Communications Research, Inc.

Notice is hereby given that, on August 23, 1996, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), Bell Communications Research, Inc. ("Bellcore") has filed written notifications on behalf of Bellcore; Lucent Technologies, Inc. ("Lucent"); Rockwell International Corporation ("Rockwell"); Southwestern Bell Technology Resources, Inc. ("TRI"); Tektronix, Inc. ("Tektronix"); and Washington University in St. Louis ("WUSTL") simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Bellcore, Morristown, NJ; Lucent, Breinigsville, PA; Rockwell, Newbury Park, CA; TRI, Austin, TX; Tektronix, Beaverton, OR; and WUSTL, St. Louis, MO.

Bellcore, Rockwell, TRI, Tektronix, and WUSTL enter into Articles of Collaboration with AT&T effective April 7, 1994, establishing a consortium to engage in a collaborative research effort of limited duration in order to gain further knowledge and understanding in the area of SONET/ATM self-healing ring technology and to better understand the applications of such technology for telecommunications networks, particularly exchange and exchange access service networks. On June 24, 1996, as a result of the restructuring of AT&T, Lucent replaced and assumed the rights and responsibilities of AT&T as a member of the consortium. The nature and objectives of the consortium remain unchanged.
