NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 72-9 (50-267)]

Notice of Issuance of Amendment to Materials License SNM-2504; Public Service Company of Colorado, Fort St. Vrain Independent Spent Fuel Storage Installation

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment 4 to Materials License No. SNM-2504 held by the Public Service Company of Colorado (PSCo) for the receipt, possession, storage, and transfer of spent fuel at the Fort St. Vrain (FSV) independent spent fuel storage installation (ISFSI), located in Weld County, Colorado. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

By application dated January 9, 1997, and supplement dated January 17, 1997, PSCo requested an amendment to its ISFSI license to change the title of the corporate-level individual directly responsible for oversight of the ISFSI. PSCo requested that the position of "Corporate Vice President" responsible for the ISFSI, identified in Technical Specification 4.2, be modified to "Corporate Executive" responsible for the ISFSI.

This amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment.

In accordance with 10 CFR 72.46(b)(2), a determination has been made that the amendment does not present a genuine issue as to whether public health and safety will be significantly affected. Therefore, the publication of a notice of proposed action and an opportunity for hearing or a notice of hearing is not warranted. Notice is hereby given of the right of interested persons to request a hearing on whether the action should be rescinded or modified.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of the amendment will not result in any significant environmental impact and that, pursuant to 10 CFR 51.22(c)(10)(ii), an environmental assessment need not be prepared in connection with issuance of the amendment.

Documents related to this action are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room located at the Gelman Building, 2120 L

Proposed Generic Communication; Degradation of Steam Generator Internals

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Extension of public comment period.

SUMMARY: On December 31, 1996 (61 FR 69116), the NRC published for public comment a proposed generic letter concerning the importance of performing comprehensive examinations of steam generator internals to ensure steam generator tube structural integrity is maintained in accordance with the requirements of Appendix B to 10 CFR part 50. The generic letter will enable the NRC to verify whether or not the condition of addressees' steam generator internals comply and conform with the current licensing basis for their respective facilities. The comment period for this proposed generic letter was originally scheduled to expire on January 30, 1997. In a letter dated January 27, 1997, the Nuclear Energy Institute requested a 45-day extension of the comment period to permit sufficient time to reach consensus on a coordinated industry response. In response to this request, the NRC has decided to extend the comment period.

DATES: The comment period has been extended 45 days and will now expire on March 15, 1997. Comments submitted after this date will be considered if it is practical to do so, but assurance of consideration cannot be given except for comments received on or before this date.

ADDRESSES: Submit written comments to Chief, Rules Review and Directives Branch, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Mail Stop T-6D-69, Washington, DC 20555-0001. Written comments may also be delivered to 11545 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Maryland, from 7:30 am to 4:15 pm, Federal workdays. Copies of written

10-Year License Terms for Materials Licensees

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is extending the license term for materials licenses issued pursuant to 10 CFR Part 30,¹ "Rules of General Applicability to Domestic Licensing of Byproduct Material"; Part 40, "Domestic Licensing of Source Material"; and Part 70, "Domestic Licensing of Special Nuclear Material" from the current 5-year period to a 10-year period on the next renewal of the affected licenses with the exception of licenses issued pursuant to Part 35. The license term for licenses issued pursuant to Part 35 are established by regulation and must be revised by rulemaking. The 5-year term for licenses other than those issued pursuant to Part 35 has been a matter of practice (see 31 FR 16367; December 22, 1966, and 32 FR 7172; May 12, 1967); the license term is not codified in the regulations.

Over the past several years, the regulatory regime applicable to materials licensees has become more stable and predictable. NRC now has extensive experience in uniform application of health and safety regulations to materials licensees. NRC has developed specific regulatory criteria for materials users in various areas. For example, NRC has revised or amended, specific regulations in the following areas: Industrial radiography, medical use, irradiators, and well-logging. In addition, NRC has recently revised its regulations regarding the standards for protection against radiation, to make them more compatible with international health and safety standards.

NRC has concluded that the term for materials licenses can be increased from 5 to 10 years, with no adverse effect on public health, safety, or the environment. This conclusion is based on the existence of the mature regulatory regime currently in place. NRC's current practice of routinely being in contact with licensees through inspections, license amendments, and annual fee-billing procedures provides further support for increasing the term of materials licenses.

Although NRC is announcing its expectation that materials licenses will be issued for 10-year terms, NRC may issue licenses for shorter terms depending on the individual circumstances of license applicants.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 6, 1997.
