SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The need for an ORV designation change within the planning area is based upon recommendations made by the Shirley Mountain Technical Committee and previously completed studies/plans. In 1985, the BLM completed a Habitat Management Plan (HMP) for the Shirley Mountains. The HMP recommends that several two-track trails be closed to motorized vehicle travel because they are fragmenting wildlife habitat, are unnecessary for adequate public access to public lands, and/or had associated erosional problems. In 1994, the Wyoming Game and Fish Department completed a habitat analysis for the Shirley Mountain area identifying habitat problems impacting wildlife populations and potential solutions. The study found that the majority of hiding cover for large game animals was heavily dissected by a system of roads and trails. Security areas for these animals during hunting season were very limited. The study recommended that future BLM management restrict the construction of new roads and that a plan be developed to manage recreational road and trail use and reduce their proliferation.

Included in the planning review is a Wild and Scenic Rivers (WSR) review of the planning area. The preliminary findings of the WSR review, documented in the appendix of the subject environmental assessment, are that one parcel of BLM administered public land meets the WSR eligibility criteria; however, none of the public lands in the planning review area have been found to meet any of the WSR suitability factors. Therefore, none of the public lands in the planning review area should be given further consideration for inclusion in the Wild and Scenic Rivers System.
