

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY*Federal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. RP99-67-000]*Mississippi River Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

October 7, 1998.

Take notice that on October 2, 1998, Mississippi River Transmission Corporation (MRT) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, revised tariff sheets listed on Appendix A to the filing. These tariff sheets are proposed to be effective on November 1, 1998.

MRT states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's Order No. 587-H.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

BILLING CODE 6717-01-M

National Fuel states that the purpose of the instant filing is to revise certain of its forms of service agreements to reduce the number of individual agreements that may need to be filed with the Commission. Specifically, National Fuel proposes to: include the identification and type of discount agreements that may be entered into; specify standard notice and evergreen periods under firm contracts; eliminate a contingency for shipper regulatory approvals that has not been needed in practice; and revise the assignment provisions so that they are bilateral in all cases.

National Fuel states that it is serving copies of this filing with its firm customers and interested state commissions. Copies are also being served on all interruptible customers as of the date of the filing.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
