(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Federal, state, local, and tribal governments; multi-jurisdictional jail facilities; private jail facilities.

The Census of Jails is the foundation for all national statistics on local jails and inmates. Whether the statistics are based on data reported by jail administrators from official records or on data reported by jail inmates in personal interviews, the census provides the frame from which to generalize to the nation and to track changes over time. Without a periodic census, sample surveys would be unreliable, and statistics would be based on a group of jails of unknown representativeness, that were simply convenient to contact and willing to respond. Previous censuses were conducted in 1970, 1972, 1978, 1983, 1988, and 1993. The censuses include all locally administered confinement facilities that hold inmates beyond arraignment and are staffed by municipal or county employees. The censuses also include jails operated under contract for local governments (17 in 1993). Reporting units are typically jurisdictions (regional, county, parish, or municipal jails), which may contain one or more jail facilities (sites with separate administrators, staff, and budgets). Data are provided by a reporter in each jurisdiction, usually a jail administrator or county sheriff. 42 U.S.C. 3732 et seq. authorizes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice to collect this information.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: It is estimated that approximately 3,558 respondents will take an average of 1 hour to complete the census.

(6) An estimate of the public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total hour burden to complete the census is 3,289 public burden hours.

If additional information is required contact: Ms. Brenda E. Dyer, Deputy Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530, or via facsimile at (202) 514-1534.

Dated: March 26, 1999.

Department Deputy Clearance Officer, Department of Justice.
