

rebates to castings exporters that purchased domestically-produced pig iron at prices set by the GOI. According to the GOI, the amounts of these rebates were calculated to equal the differences between the higher domestic prices actually paid and lower alternative prices available from sources outside of India.

As the IPRS was also the subject of litigation for the review period 1985 in Creswell v. United States, Consolidated Court No. 91-01-00012 (Creswell), litigation for the review period 1989 was stayed pending finalization of Creswell. After the CIT affirmed the Department's remand determination for the 1985 administrative review (see Creswell, slip op. 98-139 (CIT Sept. 29, 1998)), the Department published a notice of amended final results in accordance with that opinion. See Certain Iron-metal Castings from India: Amended Final Results of Countervailing Duty Administrative Review In Accordance With Decision Upon Remand (63 FR 67858, December 9, 1998.) In lieu of pursuing further litigation with respect to the administrative review of the review period 1989, the parties have entered into a settlement agreement. The parties agreed to countervailing duty rates that were calculated based on the methodology approved by the CIT in Creswell. On April 1, 1999, the CIT approved the settlement agreement and dismissed the lawsuit. See Carnation Enterprises P. Ltd., Et. Al., v. United States, Slip Op. 99-31, Consol. Ct. No., 91-11-00826 (CIT Apr. 1, 1999).

Final Results of Review

Pursuant to the settlement agreement, we recalculated the company-specific and all-other subsidy rates for the period January 1, 1989, through December 31, 1989. The amended final countervailing duty rates are:

Manufacturer/exporter	Revised rates (percent)
Carnation Enterprises Pvt. Ltd.	16.10
Uma Iron & Steel Co.	16.22
Govind Steel	20.36
Tirupati	20.36
Ragunath Prasad Phoolchand	20.36
All Others	2.50

The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service (Customs) to assess countervailing duties on all appropriate entries. The Department will issue liquidation instructions directly to Customs. The above rates will not affect the cash deposit requirements currently in effect, which will continue to be based on the rates found to exist in the most recently completed review.

This amendment to the final results of countervailing duty administrative review notice is in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Tariff Act, as amended, (19 U.S.C. 1675(a)(1), 19 CFR 351.213, and 19 CFR 351.221(b)(5)).

Dated: May 5, 1999.

Robert S. LaRussa,

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
