DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURYInternal Revenue Service*26 CFR Part 1*[TD 8820]*RIN 1545-AU11*Section 467 Rental Agreements; Treatment of Rent and Interest Under Certain Agreements for the Lease of Tangible Property*AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.ACTION: Final regulations.

SUMMARY: This document contains final regulations relating to the treatment of rent and interest under certain agreements for the lease of tangible property. The regulations apply to certain rental agreements that provide increasing or decreasing rents, or deferred or prepaid rent, and provide guidance for lessees and lessors of tangible property.

DATES: Effective Date: These regulations are effective on May 18, 1999.

Applicability Date: For dates of applicability of these regulations, see Effective Dates under SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Forest Boone of the Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax and Accounting) at (202) 622-4960 (not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

Section 467 was added to the Internal Revenue Code by section 92(a) of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 (Pub. L. 98-369 (98 Stat. 609)). On June 3, 1996, the IRS and Treasury Department issued a notice of proposed rulemaking (61 FR 27834 [IA-292-84, 1996-2 C.B. 462]) relating to section 467. The proposed regulations provide guidance regarding the applicability of section 467, and the amount of rent and interest required to be accrued under section 467.

Comments responding to the notice were received, and a public hearing was held on September 25, 1996.

The IRS and Treasury Department issued interim guidance in Notice 97-72 (1997-2 C.B. 334), which informed taxpayers of certain conditions under which a refinancing of indebtedness incurred by a lessor to acquire property that is the subject of a rental agreement will not be considered a substantial modification of that agreement for purposes of section 467. After considering the comments that were received in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking and the statements made at the public hearing, the proposed regulations are adopted as revised by this Treasury decision. The significant comments and revisions are discussed below.

Explanation of Provisions1. Section 467 Rental Agreements

Under the proposed and final regulations, section 467 applies to any rental agreement with increasing or decreasing rent and aggregate rental payments or other consideration of more than $250,000. A rental agreement has increasing or decreasing rents if the annualized fixed rent allocated to any rental period exceeds the annualized fixed rent allocated to any other rental period in the lease term.

In determining whether a rental agreement has increasing or decreasing rent, the proposed regulations provide that a rent holiday at the beginning of the lease term is disregarded if the rent holiday period is three months or less. Several commentators requested that the rent holiday period be lengthened, arguing that it should be the same as the rent holiday period permitted for determining whether a leaseback or long-term agreement has tax-motivated increasing rents (the lesser of 24 months or 10 percent of the lease term). The final regulations do not adopt this suggestion.

Section 467(d)(1)(B) provides that a rental agreement will be treated as a section 467 rental agreement if there are increases in the amount to be paid as rent under the agreement. Except for the $250,000 de minimis exception set forth in section 467(d)(2), section 467 does not contain any exceptions to the rule that rental agreements with increasing rent are section 467 rental agreements. The three-month rent holiday exception was added in the proposed regulations to prevent relatively insubstantial rent holidays from causing a rental agreement to be treated as a section 467 rental agreement. Accordingly, the three-month rent holiday exception is intended merely as a de minimis exception and a rule of administrative convenience. In contrast, Congress specifically directed that a rent holiday safe harbor should be provided for
