DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 167-99]

Privacy Act of 1974; Notice of the Removal of a System of Records

Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Procurement Policy and Review Group, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division (JMD) is removing a published Privacy Act system of records entitled "Delegations of Procurement Authority (DPA), JUSTICE/JMD-018." JUSTICE/JMD-018 was last published in the Federal Register on October 10, 1995, (60 FR 52704).

The DPA is no longer being used or maintained. The system was originally used, as part of a pre-award review of contract actions above a certain threshold, to ensure contracting officers in the Department's bureaus were exercising their procurement authority in accordance with the terms of their delegations. The system was also used to track training and career progression of bureau contracting officers. On May 31, 1995, the Procurement Executive discontinued the practice of performing pre-award reviews of all contract actions, including checks of contracting officers' delegations. In addition, consistent with the Justice Acquisition Regulations (63 FR 16118-16136), which delegate the responsibility of developing and managing career development programs to the bureaus, the DPA is no longer used for career development purposes.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 165-99]

Privacy Act of 1974; Notice of New System of Records

Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), notice is given that the Department of Justice proposes to establish a new Department-wide system of records entitled "Accounting Systems for the Department of Justice (DOJ), DOJ-001." The Department-wide system will replace those which now exist for separate Department components, and will include new disclosure provisions—in particular those which are necessary to implement the requirements of the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (DCIA). Certain disclosures necessary to implement the DCIA involve disclosure to consumer and commercial reporting agencies. An agency is required by the DCIA to disclose certain information about delinquent debtors to consumer reporting agencies, if the system of records notice indicates that such disclosure will be made and the debtor has been provided the due process rights set out in the DCIA. An agency also may disclose information concerning non-delinquent debts to consumer reporting or commercial reporting agencies in accordance with the DCIA, where notice that such disclosures may be made is indicated in the published system of records.

By separate notice, the Department will remove the systems of records now published for individual Department components after the required 30-day public comment period for the new Department-wide system of records has expired.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment on the new routine uses; and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibility under the Act, requires a 40-day period in which to conclude its review of the system. Therefore, please submit any comments by June 28, 1999. The public, OMB, and the Congress are invited to submit any comments to Mary E. Cahill, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., 20530 (Room 1400, National Place Building).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress.

Dated: May 10, 1999.
