

between tax, transfer, and other government and private policies can be examined. Government domestic policy formulators depend heavily upon the SIPP information concerning the distribution of income received directly as money or indirectly as in-kind benefits and the effect of tax and transfer programs on this distribution. They also need improved and expanded data on the income and general economic and financial situation of the U.S. population. The SIPP has provided these kinds of data on a continuing basis since 1983 permitting levels of economic well-being and changes in these levels to be measured over time.

The survey is molded around a central "core" of labor force and income questions that will remain fixed throughout the life of a panel. The core is supplemented with questions designed to answer specific needs, such as obtaining information on taxes, the ownership and contributions made to IRA, Keogh, 401K plans, examining patterns in respondent work schedules, and child care arrangements. These supplemental questions are included with the core and are referred to as "topical modules."

The topical modules for the 1996 Panel Wave 11 collect information about:

- Child Support Agreements.
- Support for Nonhouseholders.
- Adult Disability.
- Child Disability.

Wave 11 interviews will be conducted from August through November 1999.

II. Method of Collection

The SIPP is designed as a continuing series of national panels of interviewed households that are introduced every four years with each panel having a duration of four years in the survey. All household members 15 years old or over are interviewed using regular proxy-responder rules. They are interviewed a total of 12 times (12 waves) at 4-month intervals making the SIPP a longitudinal survey. Sample persons (all household members present at the time of the first interview) who move within the country and reasonably close to a SIPP primary sampling unit will be followed and interviewed at their new address. Persons 15 years old or over who enter the household after Wave 1 will be interviewed; however, if these persons move, they are not followed unless they happen to move along with a Wave 1 sample person.

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Extension of time limits for preliminary results of antidumping duty administrative review.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce is extending the time limit of the preliminary results of the antidumping duty administrative review of the antidumping finding on fresh kiwifruit from New Zealand covering the period

June 1, 1997, through May 31, 1998, since it is not practicable to complete the review within the time limit mandated by Section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 21, 1999.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Paul Stoltz or Jim Terpstra, Antidumping Duty and Countervailing Duty Enforcement, Office Four, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-4474 and 482-3965, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Applicable Statute

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the statute are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Act by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act.

Background

On July 28, 1998 (63 FR 40258) the Department of Commerce (the Department) initiated an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on fresh kiwifruit from New Zealand covering the period June 1, 1997, through May 31, 1998. In our notice of initiation, we stated that we intended to issue the final results of this review no later than June 30, 1999. The current deadline for the preliminary results is March 2, 1999.

Postponement of Preliminary Results of Review

Section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act requires the Department to make a preliminary determination within 245 days after the last day of the anniversary month of an order for which a review is requested and a final determination within 120 days after the date on which the preliminary determination is published. However, if it is not practicable to complete the review within the time period, section 751(a)(3)(A) allows the Department to extend this time period to 365 days and 180 days, respectively.

We determine that it is not practicable to complete the preliminary results of this review within the original time frame because of the numerous novel and complex legal and methodological issues in this review (see Decision Memorandum from Holly A. Kuga, Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary, to Robert S. LaRussa, Assistant Secretary).

Accordingly, the deadline for issuing the preliminary results of this review is now due no later than June 30, 1999.

The deadline for issuing the final results of this review will be no later than 120 days from the publication of the preliminary results.

This extension is in accordance with section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675 (a)(3)(A)).

Dated: January 14, 1999.

Holly Kuga,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
