

criteria by with the Corporation will evaluate the Parent Organization narrative. The Operating Site narratives are averaged and account collectively for 60% of the total score while the Parent Organization narrative accounts for the remaining 40% of the total score.

Additional information about the selection criteria may be found on page 15 in the 1999 Guide to Programs and Grants.

Application Overview

To assist in planning the peer review process, the Corporation requests that potential applicants submit a one-page letter indicating intent to apply. The letter does not constitute a commitment to apply. Please submit letters of intent by facsimile to the attention of Milinda Jefferson at 202-565-2787 by August 17, 1999.

Applicants must submit one unbound single-sided original and two copies of the application. Submissions must arrive no later than 3:30 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, September 9, 1999, and should be sent to Box ACDR, Corporation for National Service, 1201 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC, 20525. Applications submitted by facsimiles or electronic mail will not be accepted.

The entire request must be typed and double-spaced in not less than 12-point font size, with one-inch margins. Page limits, as specified below, must be followed. No appendices will be reviewed. Except under extenuating circumstances as determined by the Corporation, any submission that does not comply with the above requirements will not be reviewed.

The AmeriCorps Information Technology Initiative application consists of three major components: the Parent Organization application (8 pages maximum), the budget forms and budget narratives (no page limits), and the Operating Site application(s) (3 pages maximum per site). If a Parent Organization intends to also serve as an Operating Site then, in addition to the Parent Organization narrative and budget, it must submit an Operating Site narrative and include this Operating Site in the aggregate Operating Site budget.

The Parent Organization narrative must describe:

- The number of AmeriCorps members requested;
- The program concept and design;
- The Parent Organization's capacity to plan, implement, and manage the program including staff roles and fiscal oversight;
- For current Corporation grantees, how the proposed program relates to the organization's existing program (e.g., how the Parent Organization will integrate AmeriCorps Information Technology Initiative members into an already existing site, how the Parent Organization will integrate the proposed new activities into current monitoring and supervision systems, etc.);

- Experience in an educational setting and/or with information-based technology curricula;
- Cost-effectiveness plans and resources leveraged in support of the program;
- Rationale for selection of proposed Operating Sites; and
- The process for monitoring progress and assuring quality at the Parent Organization and across Operating Sites, including a plan for evaluation.

The budget forms and budget narratives must include:

- A proposed Parent Organization operating budget and a proposed aggregate Operating Site operating budget for the entire award period with detailed operating budgets for the first year of the program, as described in the AmeriCorps*National Application Forms and Instructions; and
- A Parent Organization budget narrative and aggregate Operating Site budget narrative. The AmeriCorps*National Application Forms and Instructions describes the structure of these narratives, which should also identify projected operating costs for the second and third years of the proposed program and identify any deviation from the operating budget for the first year of the program.

Each Operating Site narrative must describe:

- AmeriCorps member activities with measurable goals and objectives;
- The process for community input and support;
- Plans for recruitment, development, and training of AmeriCorps members;
- Supervision of AmeriCorps members including a qualifications of the individual responsible, frequency of contact with members, and previous supervisory experience;
- Anticipated community challenges and proposed continuous improvement strategies; and
- The plan for coordinating efforts with the State Commission, the State Corporation Office, and other Corporation programs in the area.

Applications must abide by the Corporation's cost per full-time equivalent AmeriCorps member guideline of $11,250 as outlined on page 47 the 1999 Guide to Programs and Grants.

The application must conform to the following format:

Parent Organization

1. Parent Organization Title Page;
2. Copies of Each Operating Site Title Page (included behind the Parent Organization Title Page in the original document only);
3. Funding Request Chart;
4. Parent Organization Narrative (maximum 8 pages); and
5. Parent Organization Budget and Budget Narrative, which includes aggregate Operating Site budget information related to the AmeriCorps Information Technology Initiative expenses and projected expenses for the second and third year of program implementation.

Operating Sites

(Each Operating Site submission should follow the same format.)

1. Operating Site Title Page; and
2. Operating Site Narrative describing site, service activities, supervision (maximum 3 pages).

BILLING CODE 6050-28-U

CORPORATION FOR NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Availability of Funds for Grants To Support the Martin Luther King, Jr. Service Day Initiative

AGENCY: Corporation for National and Community Service.

ACTION: Notice of availability of funds.

SUMMARY: The Corporation for National and Community Service (the Corporation), in consultation with the King Center on Nonviolent Social Change, Inc. in Atlanta, invites applications for grants to pay for the federal share of the cost of planning and carrying out service opportunities in conjunction with the federal legal holiday honoring the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. on January 17, 2000.

The grants are intended to mobilize more Americans to observe the Martin Luther King, Jr. federal holiday as a day of service in communities and to bring people together around the common focus of service to others. To achieve this, the Corporation will make approximately $500,000 in grant funds available to support approved service opportunities. Eligible organizations may apply for a grant in one of the following two categories. The first category of grants, in amounts of up to $3,500, will support national service and community volunteering projects of a relatively smaller scale and limited geographical scope. The second category of grants, in amounts of up to $10,000, will support large-scale (e.g., state-wide, city-wide, county-wide, or regional) service projects. By large-scale, we mean that the service involves a large number of participants in a geographic area. The Corporation expects that it will make more smaller scale grants than larger scale grants.

DATES: The deadline for submission of applications is August 26, 1999, no later than 5:00 p.m. local time.

ADDRESSES: Applications should be obtained from and returned to the Corporation state office in the applicant's state unless otherwise noted. See Supplementary Information section for Corporation state office addresses. The application should be addressed to: Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service, Corporation for National Service (Appropriate State Address).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For further information, contact the person listed for the Corporation office in your state, unless otherwise noted. This notice may be requested in an alternative format for the visually impaired by calling (202) 606-5000, ext. 262. The Corporation's T.D.D. number is (202) 565-2799 and is operational between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Corporation is a federal government corporation, established by Congress in 1993 amendments to the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (the Act) that engages Americans of all ages and backgrounds in community-based service. This service addresses the nation's education, public safety, environmental, or other human needs to achieve direct and demonstrable results with special consideration to service that affects the needs of children. In doing so, the Corporation fosters civic responsibility, strengthens the ties that bind us together as a people, and provides educational opportunity for those who make a substantial commitment to service. The Corporation supports a range of national service programs including AmeriCorps, Learn and Serve America, and the National Senior Service Corps. In providing grants to support service in connection with the Martin Luther King, Jr. federal holiday, the Corporation acts in consultation with the King Center on Nonviolent Social Change, Inc. For more information about the Corporation and the programs it supports, go to <http://www.nationalservice.org>. For more information about the King Center, go to <http://www.thekingcenter.com>.

Section 12653(s) of the Act, as amended in 1994, authorizes the Corporation to make grants to share the cost of planning and carrying out service opportunities in conjunction with the federal legal holiday honoring the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. The Corporation intends that the activities supported by these grants will: (1) Get necessary things done in communities, (2) strengthen the communities engaged in the service activity, (3) reflect the life and teaching of Martin Luther King, Jr., (4) respond to one or more of the goals set forth at the President's Summit for America's Future and include young people as service providers, not just recipients of service, and (5) begin or occur in significant part on the federal legal holiday (January 17, 2000).

Getting things done means that projects funded under the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday grant will help communities meet education, public safety, environmental, or other human needs through direct service and effective citizen action. Accordingly, the Corporation expects well designed activities that meet compelling community needs and lead to measurable outcomes and impact.

Strengthening communities means bringing people together in pursuit of a common objective that is of value to the community. On Martin Luther King, Jr. Day in 1998, President Clinton said " * * * to achieve one America, we must go beyond words to deeds. Serving together on the King holiday—and everyday—will bring our nation closer together and help meet some of our toughest challenges." Projects should seek to engage a wide range of local partners in the communities served. Projects should be designed, implemented, and evaluated with these partners, including local and state King Holiday Commissions, national service programs (AmeriCorps, Learn and Serve America, and the National Senior Service Corps), state and local organizations affiliated with the campaign for children and youth launched at the President's Summit for America's Future and carried forward by America's Promise—the Alliance for Youth, community-based agencies, schools and school districts, Volunteer Centers of the Points of Light Foundation and other volunteer organizations, local United Ways, communities of faith, businesses, foundations, state and local governments, labor organizations, and colleges and universities.

Reflecting the life and teaching of Martin Luther King means demonstrating his proposition that, "Everybody can be great because anybody can serve." Service opportunities to be considered for this program should foster cooperation and understanding among racial and ethnic groups, nonviolent conflict resolution, equal economic and educational opportunities, and social justice.

Respond to one or more of the goals of the President's Summit and include young people as service providers, not just recipients of service means that service projects should be designed to help achieve five basic goals necessary for all children and youth declared at the President's Summit for America's Future and carried forward by America's Promise—the Alliance for Youth, the organization set up to pursue the Summit's goals. Those five "fundamental resources" are: an ongoing relationship with a caring adult—mentor, tutor, coach; safe spaces and structured activities during non-school hours; a healthy start; an effective education that provides marketable skills; and an opportunity to give back to their communities through their own service. Particularly important is the fifth goal: to challenge and inspire young people to give at least one hundred hours of service a year. All young people must see themselves—and be seen by others—as resources and leaders, not just as problems or victims. Therefore, young people should be included as service providers and resources in project planning, not just as the recipients of service, realizing Dr. King's assertion that, "Everybody can be great because anybody can serve."

Begin or occur in significant part on the federal legal holiday means that a significant portion of the community service activities supported by the grant should occur on the holiday itself to strengthen the link between the observance of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the federal legal holiday (January 17, 2000), and service that reflects his life and teaching.

The direct service to be done on and in connection with the King holiday may include, but is not limited to, the following types of activities: tutoring children or adults, feeding the hungry, packing lunches, delivering meals, stocking a food or clothing pantry, repairing a school and adding to its resources, translating books and documents into other languages, recording books for the visually impaired, restoring a public space, organizing a blood drive, registering bone marrow and organ donors, renovating low-income or senior housing, building a playground, removing graffiti and painting a mural, arranging safe spaces for children who are out of school and whose parents are working, collecting oral histories of elders, running health fairs, gleaned and distributing fruits and vegetables, etc.

Although celebrations, parades, and recognition ceremonies may be a part of the activities planned on the holiday and lead to or celebrate a commitment to service, for the purposes of this grant those activities themselves do not constitute direct service and may not be supported by this grant.

Other service outcomes for which grant applications will be considered include, but are not limited to, the following: a day-of-service that is designed to produce a sustained long-term service commitment; community-wide servathons that bring a broad cross-section together in a burst of energy on one day of service, including schools or school districts that seek to involve all students and teachers in joint service; service-learning projects that link student service in schools and universities with community-based organizations; faith-based service collaborations that bring together communities of faith and secular human service programs (subject to the limitations listed below); and service projects that include a pledge or commitment for continued service throughout the year.

Grant funding will be available on a one-time, non-renewable basis for a budget period not to exceed seven months, beginning not sooner than November 1, 1999 and ending not later than June 30, 2000. By statute, grants provided for this program, together with all other federal funds used to plan or carry out the service opportunity, may not exceed 30 percent of the cost of planning and carrying out the service opportunity.

For example, if you request $3,500 in federal dollars you must have a non-federal match of at least $8,167 (cash and/or in-kind contributions) and a total projected cost of at least $11,667. If you request $10,000 in federal dollars you must have a non-federal match of at least $23,333 (cash and/or in-kind contributions) and a total projected cost of at least $33,333. In other words the total dollars requested from the federal government should be divided by .30 to determine the total cost of the project (and total project cost minus federal dollars requested equals the required match). It may assist in the calculation to apply the formula as follows:

The non-federal match may include cash and in-kind contributions (including, but not limited to, supplies, staff time, trainers, food, transportation, facilities, equipment, and services) necessary to plan and carry out the service opportunity. Grants under this program constitute federal assistance and therefore may not be used primarily to inhibit or advance religion in a material way. No part of an award from the Corporation may be used to fund religious instruction, worship or proselytization. No part of an award may be used to pay honoraria or fees for speakers. Federal funds should not be requested to support a celebration banquet or other activity not connected to the actual service.

The total amount of grant funds provided under this Notice will depend on the quality of applications and the availability of appropriated funds for this purpose.

Eligible Applicants

By law, any entity otherwise eligible for assistance under the national service laws shall be eligible to receive a grant under this announcement. The applicable laws include the National and Community Service Act of 1990, as amended, and the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as amended.

Eligible applicants include, but are not limited to: nonprofit organizations, State Commissions, volunteer centers, institutions of higher education, local education agencies, educational institutions, local or state governments, and private organizations that intend to utilize volunteers in carrying out the purposes of this program.

The Corporation especially invites applications from organizations with experience in—and commitment to—fostering service on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, including state and local Martin Luther King, Jr. Commissions, local education agencies, faith-based partnerships, Volunteer Centers of the Points of Light Foundation, and United Ways and other community-based agencies.

Any grant recipient from the 1997, 1998, and 1999 Martin Luther King, Jr., Day of Service Initiatives will be ineligible if it has been determined to be noncompliant with the terms of those grant awards.

Pursuant to the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, an organization described in section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(4), which engages in lobbying activities, is not eligible.

Overview of Application Requirements

To be considered for funding applicants should submit the following standard components for federal grants:

1. An Application for Federal Assistance, Standard Form 424.
2. A Project Narrative describing:
 - a. Clearly-defined service activities (that lead to measurable outcomes) being planned in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, which must take place significantly on the legal federal holiday (January 17, 2000), but which may extend for the budget period (November 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000).
 - b. The partnerships in the local community, city, state or region that are being engaged in support of the service activities.
 - c. The organization's background and capacity to carry out this program.
 - d. The proposed staffing of the activity.

The project narrative portion of the application may be no longer than 7 single sided pages for applications not to exceed $3,500 and 15 single-sided pages for applications not to exceed $10,000 and must be typed double-spaced in a font no smaller than 12 point, with each page numbered.

3. A Budget Narrative (specific instructions will be provided in the application materials).
4. The Budget Form supplied with the application package.
5. A signed Certification and Assurances form incorporating conditions attendant to the receipt of federal funding.
6. Three complete copies (one original and two copies) of the application.

All applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. local time, August 26, 1999 at the Corporation office in the applicant's state, unless otherwise noted, addressed as follows: Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service, Corporation for National Service, (appropriate state office address; see list of addresses provided below). Applications may not be submitted by facsimile.

To ensure fairness to all applicants, the Corporation reserves the right to take action, up to and including disqualification, in the event an application fails to comply with the requirements relating to page limits, line-spacing, font size, and application deadlines.

Budget

Detailed instructions about the budget information required will be provided in the application materials.

Selection Process and Criteria

The applications will be reviewed initially to confirm that the applicant is an eligible recipient and to ensure that the application contains the information required and otherwise complies with the requirements of this notice. The Corporation will assess the quality of the applications based on their responsiveness to the objectives included in this announcement based on the following criteria listed below (in descending order of importance):

1. Program Design. The proposal must demonstrate the applicant's ability to get necessary things done, strengthen communities, reflect the life and teaching of Martin Luther King Jr., respond to one or more of the goals set forth at the Presidents' Summit for America's Future and include young people as service providers, not just recipients of service, and begin or occur in significant part on the federal legal holiday, January 17, 2000.

2. Organizational Capacity. The application must demonstrate the organization's ability to carry out the activities described in the proposal, including the use of highly qualified staff.

3. Cost. The applicant must demonstrate how this grant will be used effectively, including the sources and uses of matching support.

Awards

The Corporation anticipates making selections under this announcement no later than November 1, 1999.
