

request by January 26, 2000. If, after receiving a copy of the study, the reviewing party determines that the study heavily relies on the results of a statistical survey, it would be appropriate for that party to make a follow-up request for production of the statistical survey by the February 11, 2000, deadline. Again, failure to make a timely follow-up request would waive the requesting party's right to request production of the survey.

In addition to the deadlines for document requests and production, there are two deadlines for the filing of precontroversy motions. Motions related to document production must be filed by February 22, 2000. Typically, these motions are motions to compel production of requested documents for failure to produce them, but they may also be motions for protective orders. Finally, all other motions, petitions and objections must be filed by March 2, 2000, the final day of the 45-day precontroversy discovery period. These motions, petitions, and objections include, for example, petitions to dispense with formal hearings under § 251.41(b).

Due to the time limitations between the procedural steps of the precontroversy discovery schedule, we are requiring that all discovery requests and responses to such requests be served by hand or fax on the party to whom such response or request is directed. Filing of requests and responses with the Copyright Office is neither encouraged nor required.

Filing and service of all precontroversy motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies shall be as follows. In order to be considered properly filed with the Librarian and/or Copyright Office, all pleadings must be delivered to the Copyright Office no later than 5 p.m. of the filing deadline date. Parties may deliver the pleadings to: Office of the Register of Copyrights, Room LM-403, James Madison Memorial Building, 101 Independence Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20540; or alternatively, parties may send their pleadings by Federal Express to: Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel (CARP), Attn: Gina Giuffreda (Tel. 202-707-8380), Federal Express, 208 Second Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003, provided that the filing reaches the Copyright Office by the deadline. The Office cautions parties to use only the Federal Express address listed in this Notice, to include the telephone number of the Office, and to direct the package to the attention of the CARP Specialist, Ms. Gina Giuffreda. The Federal Express office will notify the Copyright Office upon receipt of a properly addressed package, and the Copyright Office will make arrangements to pick up the package the same day. Under no circumstances will the Office make arrangements to retrieve a package from any other Federal Express location or track a misdirected package. Each party bears the responsibility for insuring that the filings are in the Copyright Office by the deadline.

The form and content of all motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies filed with the Office must be in compliance with §§ 251.44(b)–(e). As provided in § 251.45(b), oppositions to any motions or petitions must be filed with the Office no later than seven business days from the date of filing of such motion or petition. Replies are due five business days from the date of filing of such oppositions. Service of all motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies must be made on counsel or the parties by means no slower than overnight express mail on the same day the pleading is filed.

Initiation of Arbitration

The 180-day arbitration period will be initiated on May 1, 2000. The schedule of the arbitration proceeding will be established by the CARP after the three arbitrators have been selected.

Future Proceedings

Sections 114(f)(2)(C) and 112(e)(7) of the Copyright Act, title 17, require the publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings during the first week of January 2000. The purpose of these negotiations would be to set rates and terms for the public performance of sound recordings by means of eligible nonsubscription transmission services and for the making of ephemeral recordings for the period January 1, 2001, to December 31, 2003. Parties to a voluntary agreement, however, may designate an alternative schedule for setting rates and terms for the section 114 license as a provision of the settlement agreement. 17 U.S.C. 114(f)(2)(A) and (2)(C)(i)(II); 17 U.S.C. 112(e) (4) and (7).

In the event the parties to the current proceeding do not reach a settlement agreement prior to the first week of January, 2000, which includes an alternative schedule for setting rates and terms to cover the period January 1, 2001, to December 31, 2003, the Office will adhere to the statutory time frame and announce the initiation of the voluntary negotiation period for this next two-year cycle.

Dated: September 21, 1999.

David O. Carson,
General Counsel.
