If the Commission orders some form of remedy, the President has 60 days to approve or disapprove the Commission's action. During this period, the subject articles would be entitled to enter the United States under a bond in an amount determined by the Commission and prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Therefore, the Commission is interested in receiving written submissions concerning the amount of the bond that should be imposed.

Written Submissions

The parties to the investigation, interested Government agencies, and other interested persons or entities are encouraged to file written submissions on remedy, the public interest, and bonding.

The ALJ's final ID also contains the ALJ's recommended determination (RD) concerning remedy and bonding. The ALJ has recommended that the Commission issue a general exclusion order as well as cease and desist orders against domestic respondents A.R.E., Multi-Trend, and Harvard, and has further recommended that the Commission set the bond at 100 percent of the entered value of the infringing imports during the Presidential review period. The parties' written submissions on remedy, the public interest, and bonding should address the ALJ's RD. Complainants and the Commission investigative attorneys are requested to submit proposed remedial orders for the Commission's consideration.

All written submissions and proposed remedial orders must be filed with the Office of the Secretary no later than 5:15 p.m. on November 8, 1999. Reply submissions must be filed no later than 5:15 p.m. on November 15, 1999. No further submissions on remedy, the public interest, and bonding will be permitted unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

Persons filing written submissions and proposed remedial orders must file the original document and 14 true copies with the Office of the Secretary on or before the deadlines stated above. Any person desiring to submit a document or portion thereof in confidence must request confidential treatment unless the information contained in the document or portion thereof has already been granted such treatment during the investigation. All requests for confidential treatment should be directed to the Secretary of the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons that the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 C.F.R. § 201.6. All nonconfidential written submissions will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Secretary.

Nonconfidential versions of the ID, including the RD on remedy and public interest, and all other nonconfidential documents filed in the investigation are or will be available for public inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Commission's Office of the Secretary, Dockets Branch, 500 E Street, SW., Room 112, Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-1802.
