

maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by every one of the intervenors. An intervenor can file for rehearing of any Commission order and can petition for court review of any such order.

However, an intervenor must submit copies of comments or any other filing it makes with the Commission to every other intervenor in the proceeding, as well as 14 copies with the Commission.

A person does not have to intervene, however, in order to have comments considered. A person, instead, may submit two copies of comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of environmental documents and will be able to participate in meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by commenters or those requesting intervenor status.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for MCGP to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.

Acting Secretary.

Texas Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Refund Report

February 18, 1999.

Take notice that on February 11, 1999, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) tendered for filing a refund report showing that on January 13, 1999, Texas Gas submitted refunds (total principal and interest amount of $17,189,361.46) to all affected shippers in Docket No. RP97-344.

Texas Gas states that on July 15, 1998, the Commission issued an Order which approved the Stipulation and Agreement (Settlement) filed March 20, 1998, in Docket No. RP97-344. According to Article XIII of the Settlement, the Settlement became effective on November 14, 1998, due to no applications being filed for rehearing of the Commission's October 14, 1998, Order Denying Rehearing. Pursuant to the provisions of Article II of the approved Stipulation and Agreement, the refunds were made on January 13, 1999.

Texas Gas states that this refund report is being submitted in compliance with the provisions of Article XII of the Stipulation and Agreement, requiring a report within 30 days of the refunds, and in accordance with Subpart F of Part 154 of the Commission's regulations.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before February 25, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
