BILLING CODE 4310-70-M

suspension of its antidumping investigation on certain ammonium nitrate from Russia (65 FR 37759). The basis for the suspension is an agreement between the Department of Commerce and the Ministry of Trade of the Russian Federation accounting for substantially all imports of ammonium nitrate from Russia, wherein the Ministry of Trade has agreed to restrict exports of ammonium nitrate from all Russian producers/exporters to the United States and to ensure that such exports are sold at or above the agreed reference price. Accordingly, the U.S. International Trade Commission gives notice of the suspension of its antidumping investigation involving imports from Russia of certain ammonium nitrate, provided for in subheading 3102.30.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 16, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Karen Taylor (202-708-4101), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>).

Authority: This investigation is being suspended under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.40 of the Commission's rules (19 CFR 207.40).

Issued: June 23, 2000.

By order of the Commission.

States v. Western Publishing Co., Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 94-CV-1247 and State of New York v. F.I.C.A. a/k/a Dutchess Sanitation Services, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 86-CV-1136 (LEK/DNH) was lodged with the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York. The proposed Consent Decree will resolve the United States' claims, on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA"), and the claims of the State of New York ("State") under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., against defendants F.I.C.A. and the Estate of Joseph Fiorillo, Sr., as well as potential claims against Joseph Fiorillo, Jr., relating to response costs incurred and to be incurred in connection with the Hertel Landfill Superfund Site ("Site"), located in the Hamlet of Clintondale, Town of Plattekill, Ulster County, New York. The United States and the State of New York alleged in their Complaints that the defendants are liable as successors in interest to Dutchess Sanitation Services, Inc., as owners and/or operators of the Site and as transporters of hazardous substances to the Site pursuant to Section 107(a) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9607(a).

Under the terms of the Decree, the settling parties will make a cash payment of $50,000, to be divided equally between the United States and certain prior settling parties currently performing EPA's selected remedy at the Site ("performing parties"), within 5 days of execution of the Decree by the United States. The F.I.C.A. settling parties shall also permit and cooperate in the sale of various parcels of real property owned by the F.I.C.A. partnership, proceeds from which are to be paid, after deduction of real estate closing costs and satisfaction of back property taxes, equally to the United States and the performing parties. Terms of the sales of the properties are subject to the approval of the United States and the performing parties. The Decree further provides that the United States shall designate $60,000 of its share of the proceeds to be applied as a civil penalty and punitive damages, pursuant to sections 106(b)(1) and 107(c)(3) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9606(b)(1) and 9607(c)(3), in satisfaction of the United States' claim that F.I.C.A. failed or refused to comply with Administrative Order No. II CERCLA-20217 in connection with the Site. Within 30 days of entry of the Decree, F.I.C.A. will pay the State $2,000 in satisfaction of the State's claim for reimbursement of its response costs at the Site. The
