Procedures For Processing Temporary Agricultural Worker (H-2A) Petitions by the Secretary of LaborAGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: This proposed rule will amend the Immigration and Naturalization Service (Service) regulations regarding the temporary agricultural worker (H-2A) program. The proposed rule requires alien workers to sign a petition request for change of status or extension of stay; provides that all petition requests including extension of stay and change of status petitions must be filed with the Department of Labor (DOL); and provides that the current Service petition fee will be collected by DOL as a part of a combined fee. These changes will further streamline the H-2A petitioning process. (See the final rule published elsewhere in this issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER in which the Attorney General has delegated the authority to adjudicate petitions for H-2A workers to the Secretary of Labor.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:What is an H-2A petition?

The Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) provides for an employer to seek the services of foreign workers to perform temporary or seasonal agricultural services in the United States. These temporary agricultural workers are known as H-2A workers.

What Changes Does This Rule Make?

Under this proposed rule, the DOL would accept additional forms and fees associated with the H-2A program on the Service's behalf. The DOL would forward petitions requesting extension of stay or change of status to the Service for adjudication of those portions of the petitions. For example, the DOL would accept Service Forms I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document, and Forms I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status, that are filed concurrently with the DOL's Form ETA-9079. Service Forms I-102 are sometimes filed by H-2A workers or their dependents to replace a Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. Forms I-539 are sometimes filed by accompanying dependents who need a change of nonimmigrant status or extension of stay to remain with the principal H-2A worker. The DOL would accept these forms and fees on the Service's behalf, and would forward them to the Service for adjudication after the ETA-9079 decision is made.

Are There Any Other Requirements Being Imposed?

Yes, the proposed regulation requires an alien worker who seeks a change of status or extension of stay as an H-2A worker to sign the application for this purpose. This requirement demonstrates the alien's assent to his or her benefit request ensuring that the alien has taken the legal responsibility for the information entered on the form concerning the alien, and that the alien is a responsible party to the request for extension of stay or change of nonimmigrant status.

What About Short Term Extensions of Employment?

Where an employer needs a short term extension of the employment period for up to 14 days, the existing procedure allows for the employer to obtain an extension of the petition authorization by filing a Form I-129. The DOL provides an automatic co-extension of the underlying labor certification if the petition is approved. The proposed procedure provides that an automatic grace period of 14 days or the length of the labor certification if issued for less than 14 days, be added to the validity date of the approved labor certification and petition if the H-2A petition is approved. No separate application or fee is required to receive this grace period. Any extension of the employer's need beyond the initially authorized period (which includes the grace period) requires that a petition and application for labor certification be filed with the DOL along with an application to extend the alien's temporary stay. The Service requests comments on this change.

Is There Any Change in the Fee Required for the Service's Petition Portion of the H-2A Process?

No; the Service will not change the fee requirement for the petition at this time. The current fee charged for the Form I-129 will be charged as part of the combined fee for the DOL's new Form ETA-9079 ($110 plus the DOL fee). The Service will collect no separate fee for the adjudication of changes of status or extensions of stay at this time. The Service does conduct periodic reviews of its fees in order to ensure that the cost to the Service for adjudication of benefit applications and petitions is recovered. These reviews are scheduled every 2 years. The existing fee will be reevaluated during those periodic reviews and adjusted accordingly.

Is There Any Change in the Requirement to Report Workers Who Depart Before Completing the Services Requested?

The Service has required employers to report alien workers who abscond or leave their employment more than 5 days in advance of the completion of the stated employment period. The employer must make this report within 24 hours, and in order to avoid paying a liquidated damage, must establish that the worker departed from the United States or found other authorized status. The proposed rule requires this same reporting but specifies that the report be made to the Nebraska Service Center. This Center will handle all aspects of the H-2A process for the Service. The Service requires compliance with this reporting requirement in order to provide meaningful data on violations of the H-2A employment program, and to help ensure that employers do everything possible to assist the Service in ensuring the departure of these workers from the United States.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Attorney General, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), has reviewed this regulation and, by approving it, certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because of the following factors: The regulation is administrative in nature and merely transfers authority to make certain determinations to the DOL. It does not expand the existing process requirements. The interim rule does not involve an increase in fees. The number of Form I-129 petitions filed in the past few years has ranged from 1,400 to 4,000.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any 1 year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 804 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Act of 1996. This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effective on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Executive Order 12866

This rule is considered by the Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service, to be a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866, section 3(f), Regulatory Planning and Review. Accordingly, this regulation has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for review.

Executive Order 13132

This rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the National Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with section 6 of Executive Order 12132, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary statement.

Executive Order 12988: Civil Justice Reform

This rule meets the applicable standards set forth in section 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988.

employer's application to the DOL. (vi) Petition agreements—

(A) Consent and liabilities. In filing an H-2A petition, a petitioner and each employer consents to allow the Government access to the site where the labor is being performed for the purpose of determining compliance with H-2A requirements. The petitioner further agrees to notify the Nebraska Service Center, by overnight delivery service or overnight mail within 24 hours, if an H-2A worker absconds, or if the authorized employment ends more than 5 days before the relating certification document expires, and to pay liquidated damages of $10 for each instance where the petitioner cannot demonstrate compliance with this notification requirement. The petitioner also agrees to pay liquidated damages of $200 for each instance where the petitioner cannot demonstrate that its H-2A worker either departed the United States or obtained other authorized status during the period of admission of within 5 calendar days of early termination that is based upon the expiration date of the labor certification, whichever comes first.

(vii) Validity. An approved H-2A petition is valid through the expiration of the relating certification, plus 14 days (or the length of the labor certification if less than 14 days), for the purpose of allowing a beneficiary to seek issuance of an H-2A nonimmigrant visa, admission, change of status, or an extension of stay for the purpose of engaging in the specific certified employment.

The DOL will forward the extension requests to the Nebraska Service Center for adjudication. An extension of stay for the beneficiary of an H-2A petition is included in the Form I-129 petition extension request. An extension of stay for the beneficiary of an H-2A or H-2B petition may be authorized for the validity of the labor certification and approved petition or for a period of up to 1 year, except as provided for in paragraph (h)(5)(x) of this section.
