

Does the arbitrator's background indicate a preference for more formal proceedings as opposed to less formal ones?

Is the arbitrator available when necessary, and is the arbitrator's calendar free enough to expeditiously handle your case?

Does the arbitrator have a record of being reasonably prompt in scheduling hearings and issuing decisions?

Is the arbitrator's rate for services consistent with the rates that the agency ordinarily would pay for similar services? (Check to see if a government rate is available.)

8. Establish disclosure requirements that comply with agency conflict of interest regulations to ensure that an arbitrator has no official, financial, or personal conflict of interest with any of the involved entities, unless such interest is fully disclosed in writing to all parties, and all parties agree that the arbitrator may serve.

9. Provide procedures to replace the arbitrator if the position becomes vacant by disqualification or disability.

Note: You may hire an ADR provider to administer the arbitration and perform all these functions for you. (See Issue No. 16.)

Appendix D—Agreement to Submit to Binding Arbitration

We, the undersigned parties, hereby voluntarily agree to submit the following controversy to binding arbitration: (briefly describe the controversy). We agree upon _____ as the arbitrator, to be paid at the rate of $_____, which will be jointly shared by the parties. We further agree that the arbitration shall be conducted under the (identify the applicable procedural rules). We further agree that we shall faithfully observe this agreement and the (applicable procedural rules), that we will abide by and perform any award rendered by the arbitrator, and that a judgment of a court with appropriate jurisdiction may be entered on the award. Finally, we agree that the maximum award that the arbitrator can issue in this binding arbitration shall not exceed (insert here the maximum award that may be issued by the arbitrator and specify other conditions limiting the range of possible outcomes).
