

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYFederal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. CP01-70-002]*Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Filing

June 29, 2001.

Take notice that on June 15, 2001, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) a compliance filing in Docket No. CP01-70. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" from the RIMS Menu and follow the instructions (please call (202) 208-2222 for assistance).

On May 16, 2001, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission issued its "Order Issuing Certificate and Authorizing Abandonment" in the above referenced docket ("May 16 Order"). In Ordering Paragraph (H) of the May 16 Order, the Commission required Columbia "to explain under what conditions it has been allowing shippers to contract for multi-year seasonal service and to have different primary delivery points on a seasonal basis." In Ordering Paragraph (I) of the May 16 Order, the Commission directed Columbia "to file within 30 days of the issuance of this order all currently effective contracts in which Columbia has included, through footnotes or insertion of other language, conditions that would constitute material deviations from the pro forma service agreement that affect the service provided under its rate schedules." Columbia is submitting the instant filing in compliance with these directives.

Columbia states that copies of its filing are available for inspection at its offices at 12801 Fair Lakes Parkway, Fairfax, Virginia; and 10 G Street NE., Suite 580, Washington, DC; and have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers, and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.

Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> under the link to the User's Guide. If you have not yet established an account, you will need to create a new account by clicking on "Login to File" and then "New User Account."

BILLING CODE 6717-01-MDEPARTMENT OF ENERGY*Federal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. CP01-395-000]*Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Request Under Blanket Authorization

June 29, 2001.

Take notice that on June 21, 2001, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia), 12801 Fair Lakes Parkway, Fairfax, Virginia 22030-0146, filed in Docket No. CP01-395-000 a request pursuant to Sections 157.205 and 157.216 of the Commission's Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205, 157.216) for authorization to abandon a delivery point in Loudoun County, Virginia, under Columbia's blanket certificate issued in Docket No. CP83-76-000, pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, all as more fully set forth in the request that is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" from the RIMS Menu and follow the instructions (please call (202)208-2222 for assistance).

Columbia states that Washington Gas Light (WGL) notified Columbia by letter dated January 17, 2001 of its intent to abandon its point of delivery from Columbia designated as Preferred Plastics. Columbia also states that the point of delivery proposed for abandonment has not been utilized since 1997, but is listed on WGL's Storage Service Transportation (SST) agreement with Columbia. Columbia further states that the abandonment activities will consist of removing the station in its entirety and capping the tap.

Any questions regarding the application may be directed to Fredric J. George, Attorney, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, P.O. Box 1273, Charleston, West Virginia 25325-1273, or telephone (304)357-2359 or FAX (304)357-3206.

Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If no protest is filed within the time allowed therefor, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for filing a protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> under the link to the User's Guide. BILLING CODE 6717-01-MDEPARTMENT OF ENERGY*Federal Energy Regulatory Commission*[CP01-394-000]*Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Request Under Blanket Authorization

Take notice that on June 19, 2001, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia Gas), P.O. Box 1273, Charleston, West Virginia 25325-1273, filed in Docket No. CP01-394-000 a request pursuant to Sections 157.205 and 157.211 of the Commission's Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205 and 157.211) for authorization to construct and operate a new delivery point to Knox Energy Cooperation Association Inc., located in Knox County, Ohio, under Columbia

Gas' blanket certificate issued in Docket CP83-76-000 pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, all as more fully set forth in the request which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" from the RIMS Menu and follow the instructions (please call (202) 208-2222 for assistance).

Columbia Gas states that the new point of delivery will consist of installing a tap and a valve and that the estimated quantity of natural gas to be delivered at the new delivery point is 3,600 dekatherms per day. Columbia Gas declares that the estimated cost of construction is $20,890. Columbia Gas states that service is currently being provided by Ohio Cumberland Gas Company (Ohio Cumberland). Columbia Gas asserts that Ohio Cumberland has waived its rights to continue providing the service.

Columbia Gas states that the quantities of natural gas to be provided through the new point of delivery will be within Columbia Gas's authorized level of services. Columbia Gas asserts there is no impact on their existing design day and annual obligations to the customers as a result of the construction and operation of the new delivery point for firm transportation service.

Any questions regarding the application should be directed to Fredric J. George, Attorney, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, P.O. Box 1273, Charleston, West Virginia 25325-1273, at (304) 357-2359, Telecopier: (304) 357-3206.

Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 285.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205), a protest to the request. If no request is filed within the time allowed therefor, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper.
