The petitions were submitted pursuant to Section 251 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2341). Consequently, the United States Department of Commerce has initiated separate investigations to determine whether increased imports into the United States of articles like or directly competitive with those produced by each firm contributed importantly to total or partial separation of the firm's workers, or threat thereof, and to a decrease in sales or production of each petitioning firm.

Any party having a substantial interest in the proceedings may request a public hearing on the matter. A request for a hearing must be received by Trade Adjustment Assistance, Room 7315, Economic Development Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, no later than the close of business of the tenth calendar day following the publication of this notice.

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance official program number and title of the program under which these petitions are submitted is 11.313, Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Continuation of Countervailing and Antidumping Duty Orders on Oil Country Tubular Goods From Argentina, Italy, Japan, Korea and Mexico, and Partial Revocation of Those Orders From Argentina and Mexico With Respect to Drill Pipe

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of continuation of countervailing and antidumping duty orders on oil country tubular goods from Argentina, Italy, Japan, Korea and Mexico, and partial revocation of those orders from Argentina and Mexico with respect to drill pipe.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce ("the Department"), pursuant to sections 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"), determined that revocation of the countervailing duty order on oil country tubular goods ("OCTG") from Italy, and the antidumping duty orders on OCTG from Argentina, Italy, Japan, Korea and Mexico would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of a countervailable subsidy and dumping.<sup>1</sup>

On July 10, 2001, the International Trade Commission ("the Commission"), pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, determined that revocation of the countervailing duty order on OCTG other than drill pipe from Italy,<sup>2</sup> the antidumping duty orders on OCTG other than drill pipe from Argentina, Italy, Korea, and Mexico, and the antidumping duty order on OCTG, inclusive of drill pipe, from Japan would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (66 FR 35997 (July 10, 2001)). The Commission also determined that partial revocation of the antidumping duty orders on OCTG with respect to drill pipe from Argentina and Mexico would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (66 FR 35997 (July 10, 2001)).

Pursuant to 751(d)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(f)(4), the Department is publishing this notice of the continuation of the countervailing duty order on OCTG other than drill pipe from Italy, the antidumping duty orders on OCTG other than drill pipe from Argentina, Italy, Korea and Mexico, and the antidumping duty order on OCTG, inclusive of drill pipe, from Japan.

In addition, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(i), the Department is revoking, in part, the antidumping duty orders on OCTG from Argentina and Mexico with respect to drill pipe. Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(i) the effective date of this partial revocation of the order on OCTG from Argentina and Mexico is August 11, 2000 (the fifth year after the date of publication of the order).

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 25, 2001.<sup>3</sup>

drill pipe and OCTG other than drill pipe. In addition, in its original investigation the ITC went negative on drill pipe from Italy and Korea. See USITC Publication 3434 (June 2001), Investigation Nos. 701-TA-364, 731-TA-711, and 713-716 (Reviews), p.5.

<sup>3</sup> The effective date for the continuation of the orders is the date of publication of this Federal Register notice. The effective date for the partial revocations is August 11, 2000 (the fifth year after the date of publication of the order).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*Background

On July 3, 2000, the Department initiated (65 FR 41053), and the Commission instituted (65 FR 41088), sunset reviews of the countervailing duty order on OCTG from Italy, and the antidumping duty orders on OCTG from Argentina, Italy, Japan, Korea and Mexico pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act. As a result of these reviews, the Department found that revocation of the countervailing and the antidumping duty orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of a countervailable subsidy and dumping, and notified the Commission of the magnitude of the margins likely to prevail were the orders revoked.<sup>4</sup>

On July 10, 2001, the Commission determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the countervailing duty order on OCTG other than drill pipe from Italy, the antidumping duty orders on OCTG other than drill pipe from Argentina, Italy, Korea and Mexico, and antidumping duty order on OCTG from Japan, inclusive of drill pipe, would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.<sup>5</sup> The Commission also determined that partial revocation of the antidumping duty orders on OCTG from Argentina and Mexico with respect to drill pipe, would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.<sup>6</sup>

Determinations

As a result of the determinations by the Department and the Commission that revocation of the countervailing and antidumping duty orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of a countervailable subsidy, dumping, and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby orders the continuation of the countervailing and antidumping duty orders on OCTG other than drill pipe from Argentina, Italy, Korea and Mexico, and the continuation of the antidumping duty order on OCTG, inclusive of drill pipe, from Japan. The effective date of continuation of the orders of the countervailing duty order on OCTG other than drill pipe from Italy, the antidumping duty orders on OCTG other than drill pipe on Argentina, Mexico, Italy, and Korea, and on OCTG, inclusive of drill pipe, from Japan will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of this notice of continuation. Pursuant to section 751(c)(2) and 751(c)(6) of the Act, the Department intends to initiate the next five-year review of these orders not later than June 2006.

With respect to drill pipe from Argentina and Mexico, as a result of the determination by the Commission that revocation is not likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States, the Department, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act is revoking, in part, the antidumping duty orders on OCTG from Argentina and Mexico for drill pipe. Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(i), revocation is effective August 11, 2000 (the fifth year after the date of publication of the order). The Department will instruct the Customs Service to discontinue the suspension of liquidation and collection of cash deposit rates on entries of the subject merchandise entered or withdrawn on or after August 11, 2000. The Department will complete any pending administrative reviews of these orders and will conduct administrative reviews of subject merchandise entered prior to the effective date of revocation in Argentina, Japan, and Mexico contains drill pipe. The Commission determined that drill pipe was a separate like product and, consequently made separate determinations as to whether the revocation of the orders with respect to drill pipe would lead to the continuation or recurrence of injury to a U.S. industry. Because the Commission's determinations were negative with respect to drill pipe from Argentina and Mexico, the Department has altered the scope language to eliminate drill pipe and its associated HTSUS numbers with respect to those orders.

Notice of Final Determination of Sales At Less Than Fair Value: Solid Agricultural Grade Ammonium Nitrate From Ukraine

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of final determination of sales at less than fair value.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce is conducting an antidumping duty investigation of solid agricultural grade ammonium nitrate from Ukraine. We determine that sales have been made at less than fair value. The dumping margin for J.S.C. "Concern" Stiroil is 156.29 percent. #### Case History

Since the publication of the preliminary determination in this investigation (see Notice of Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Postponement of Final Determination: Solid Agricultural Grade Ammonium Nitrate from Ukraine, 66 FR 13286 (March 5, 2001) ("Preliminary Determination")), the following events have occurred:

On March 5, 2001, the petitioner in this investigation (the Committee for Fair Ammonium Nitrate Trade) alleged certain errors in the preliminary determination. We responded to this allegation on March 16, 2001. See March 16, 2001 memorandum to Richard W. Moreland, Deputy Assistant Secretary, entitled "Ministerial Error Allegations for Preliminary Determination," which is on file in the Import Administration's Central Records Unit ("CRU"), Room B-099 of the main Department of Commerce building.

In March 2001, we conducted a verification of the questionnaire responses submitted by J.S.C.
