DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of Proposed New Privacy Act System of Records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, gives notice of a newly proposed system of records, Treasury/IRS 60.000—Employee Protection System Records. A portion of the existing systems of records (1) Assault and Threat Investigation Files, Inspection—Treasury/IRS 60.001 addressing potentially dangerous taxpayers and (2) the Miscellaneous Information File, Inspection—Treasury/IRS 60.007, will be transferred to the proposed new system of records when the notice is effective.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than December 31, 2001. The system of records will be effective January 9, 2002, unless comments are received which result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be sent to the Office of Governmental Liaison and Disclosure, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Ave., NW., Washington, DC 20224. Comments will be made available for inspection and copying in the National Office reading room upon request. An appointment for inspecting the comments can be made by calling (202) 622-5164. This is not a toll free number.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Chief, Office of Employee Protection, Internal Revenue Service, 477 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, MI, 48226, telephone (313) 628-3742. This is not a toll free number.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department is establishing the Employee Protection System Records system of records to enhance the security and safety of Internal Revenue Service employees who are engaged in the assessment and collection of federal taxes. This system will consist of information furnished by Internal Revenue Service employees or other parties with respect to an individual who is involved in a tax administration matter before the Internal Revenue Service. The records in this system will be maintained for a period of five years, after which the records will be reviewed to determine whether there is a need to maintain the information in the system. This system, being established as a result of the 1998 IRS Restructuring and Reform Act, will consist primarily of records of potentially dangerous taxpayers formerly maintained under the system of records entitled "Treasury/IRS 60.001—Assault and Threat Investigation Files, Inspection" and records pertaining to assaults, threats, harassment, and suicide threats maintained under the system of records entitled "Treasury/IRS 60.007—Miscellaneous Information File, Inspection." Because parts of this system are retrieved by individual identifier, the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, requires a general notice of the existence of this system of records to the public. The records contained in this system of records will include reports by Internal Revenue Service employees of incidents of threats of harm to, or harassment of, employees by individual taxpayers, threats of suicide made by a taxpayer in response to a contact by an Internal Revenue Service employee, results of investigations into those incidents, determinations as to whether the taxpayer should be considered a potentially dangerous taxpayer or a taxpayer who should be approached with caution, and related correspondence.

The new system of records report, as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) of the Privacy Act, has been submitted to the Committee on Government Operations of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A-130, "Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals," dated November 30, 2000.

The proposed system of records, Treasury/IRS 60.000—Employee Protection System Records, is published in its entirety below.

Dated: November 7, 2001.
