DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Notice of Proposed Information Collection Requests

AGENCY: Department of Education.

ACTION: Notice of proposed information collection requests.

SUMMARY: The Leader, Regulatory Information Management, Office of the Chief Information Officer, invites comments on the proposed information collection requests as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

DATES: An emergency review has been requested in accordance with the Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 3507 (j)), since public harm is reasonably likely to result if normal clearance procedures are followed. Approval by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has been requested by April 23, 2002. A regular clearance process is also beginning. Interested persons are invited to submit comments on or before June 17, 2002.

ADDRESSES: Written comments regarding the emergency review should be addressed to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Lauren Wittenberg, Desk Officer: Department of Education, Office of Management and Budget; 725 17th Street, NW., Room 10235, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503 or should be electronically mailed to the internet address Lauren_Wittenberg@omb.eop.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. chapter 35) requires that the Director of OMB provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) may amend or waive the requirement for public consultation to the extent that public participation in the approval process would defeat the purpose of the information collection, violate State or Federal law, or substantially interfere with any agency's ability to perform its statutory obligations. The Leader, Information Management Group, Office of the Chief Information Officer, publishes this notice containing proposed information collection requests at the beginning of the Departmental review of the information collection. Each proposed information collection, grouped by office, contains the following: (1) Type of review requested, e.g., new, revision, extension, existing or reinstatement; (2) Title; (3) Summary of the collection; (4) Description of the need for, and proposed use of, the information; (5) Respondents and frequency of collection; and (6) Reporting and/or Recordkeeping burden. ED invites public comment. The Department of Education is especially interested in public comment addressing the following issues: (1) Is this collection necessary to the proper functions of the Department; (2) will this information be processed and used in a timely manner; (3) is the estimate of burden accurate; (4) how might the Department enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (5) how might the Department minimize the burden of this collection on respondents, including through the use of information technology.

Dated: April 12, 2002.

John D. Tressler,

Leader, Regulatory Information Management, Office of the Chief Information Officer.

Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services

Type of Review: New.

Title: SPeNSE Substudy on Paperwork Burden.

Abstract: In order to inform the reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) needs information on the causes of reported paperwork burden among special education teachers. This substudy will explore factors associated with paperwork burden through telephone interviews with special education teachers.

Additional Information: During recent hearings for the reauthorization of IDEA, ED heard testimony from administrators and special educators about the tremendous paperwork burden placed on teachers; however, policymakers lack adequate data to adequately characterize this burden, the factors affecting it, and approaches to easing paperwork burden. This substudy will provide ED with the information it needs to inform the upcoming reauthorization of the IDEA and set priorities within the Department for technical assistance and further research.

Frequency: One time.

Affected Public: Individuals or household.

Reporting and Recordkeeping Hour Burden:

Responses: 1,000.

Burden Hours: 250.

Requests for copies of the proposed information collection request may be accessed from <http://edicsweb.ed.gov>, by selecting "Browse Pending Collections" and clicking on link number. Notice of Change in DOE Office of Science Business Practices Notice 02-24; Implement Use of Industry Interactive Procurement System (IIPS)

AGENCY: Office of Science, Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice of changeover to use of Industry Interactive Procurement System (IIPS).

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Energy, Office of Science, is announcing a fundamental change in the manner in which business will be conducted. A secure, web-enabled acquisition and financial assistance system, Industry Interactive Procurement System (IIPS), has been developed and is deployed. Effective June 1, 2002, this system will become the way our office receives competitive financial assistance applications. IIPS provides for the posting of solicitations, receipt of applications, and conducting of clarifications or discussions in a paperless environment via the Internet. DATES: Effective June 1, 2002, applications must be submitted in PDF format through the IIPS system. (However, in order to allow sufficient time for all applicants to register and transition to the IIPS system, the Office of Science will continue to accept printed copies of applications until the end of the fiscal year, i.e., September 30, 2002.)

ADDRESSES: When submitting applications, applicants should use the IIPS web page, which is located at: <http://e-center.doe.gov/>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Director, Grants and Contracts Division, Office of Science, SC-64, U.S. Department of Energy, 19901 Germantown Road, Germantown, MD 20874-1290. Applicants may call 301-903-5212, for information and assistance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Since we are planning on issuing all solicitations electronically using IIPS, we want you to subscribe to IIPS, free of charge, to receive notifications of financial assistance opportunities in which you are interested. To subscribe to the electronic mailing list, you will need to go to our web site at: <http://e-center.doe.gov/>. From this page, click on the "register" button to initiate the subscription process. You will need to provide information similar to that required on the Standard Form 129, Solicitation Mailing List Application. Follow the instructions for "subscribing" to IIPS. Best practices suggest you browse the IIPS page frequently to ensure you are receiving the appropriate notices. In order to submit proposals or bids, you must register your firm or institution. To register, click on the "register" button on the IIPS home page, so you can choose to "register" or "register and subscribe" (this is a combination registration and subscription form). Clicking on either option opens a form for you to complete. As with the subscription form, you must complete all the required fields and click on the "submit" button at the bottom of the form. Should you need assistance, please feel free to contact the IIPS help desk at 800-683-0751, or by email at: helpdesk@pr.doe.gov.

Office of Science solicitations will include as an attachment, the appropriate forms in PDF fillable format to be submitted with the proposal. All information submitted through IIPS must be in PDF format. Additional information about the Office of Science financial assistance programs is available at our home page, which is located at: <http://www.sc.doe.gov/production/grants/grants.html>. Please bookmark these pages and check back often.

This Notice remains in effect until it is succeeded by another issuance by the Office of Science.

Issued in Washington, DC on April 9, 2002.

John Rodney Clark,

Associate Director of Science for Resource Management.
