The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 18, 2001 (66 FR 65220).

These employees provide support function services for the production of refractory materials and related machinery at the Canonsburg, Pennsylvania location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the Canonsburg, Pennsylvania location of MICTEC, Inc. operating at various locations in the following states: Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of MICTEC, Inc. who were adversely affected by increased imports.

Motorola, Inc., Arlington Heights, IL; Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated June 25, 2002, a petitioner requested that the Department of Labor amend a Trade Adjustment Assistance certification issued on May 2, 2002 for workers of Motorola, Inc., Global Telecom Solutions (GTSS) and Commercial, Government, Industrial Solutions Sector (CGISS), Schaumburg, Illinois (TA-W-40,501 & TA-W-40,501A, respectively) to include workers of Motorola, Inc., Arlington Heights, Illinois (TA-W-41,302). Based on the information supplied in the petitioner's letter, it appears the petitioner is actually requesting administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA), applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm (TA-W-41,302). The denial notice was signed on June 27, 2002, and published in the Federal Register on July 9, 2002 (67 FR 45550).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) if it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) if in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a mis-interpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The petition for the workers of Motorola, Inc., Arlington Heights, Illinois was denied because the "contributed importantly" group eligibility requirement of Section 222(3) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, was not met. The investigation revealed that the predominate cause of worker separations at the subject facility was related to a domestic shift of production to another facility located in Illinois.

The petitioner believes that the workers at the subject plant were in direct support of a facility under an existing Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) Certification (TA-W-40,501) Motorola, Inc., Global Telecom Solutions Sector (GTSS), formerly Network Solutions Sector (NSS), Schaumburg, Illinois and therefore believes they should be considered for TAA certification. The petitioner further believes that the workers do the same work as the Schaumburg plant.

A review of the data supplied by the company during the initial investigation shows that subject plant workers were primarily engaged in activities related to the production of cable modems and cable hardware. The workers at the TAA certified facility located in Schaumburg were engaged in the production of IDEN and CGISS radio system units.

The company supplied further information concerning any potential

Arlington Heights support activities directed towards the Schaumburg facility. The data provided by the company indicates that the portion of Arlington Heights work directed towards the Schaumburg plant was negligible during the relevant period.

Conclusion

After review of the application and investigative findings, I conclude that there has been no error or misinterpretation of the law or of the facts which would justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. Accordingly, the application is denied.

Signed at Washington, DC this 1st day of October, 2002.

Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Oremet, Wah Chang, Division of Allegheny Technologies, Inc., Albany, OR; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 2, 2001, applicable to workers of Oremet, a Division of Allegheny Technologies, Inc., Albany, Oregon. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 2, 2001 (66 FR 22006).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of titanium ingot, sponge and forged products.

New information shows that Oremet and Wah Chang are divisions of Allegheny Technologies, Inc.

Information also shows that some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Oremet, Wah Chang, a Division of Allegheny Technologies, Inc.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Oremet, a Division of Allegheny Technologies, Inc., Albany, Oregon who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-38,733 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Oremet, Wah Chang, a Division of Allegheny Technologies, Inc., Albany, Oregon, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 10, 2000, through April 2, 2003, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Ruger Equipment, Inc., Urichsville, OH; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

On August 12, 2002, the Department issued an Affirmative Determination Regarding Application on Reconsideration applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 20, 2002 (67 FR 53973).

The Department initially denied TAA to workers of Ruger Equipment, Inc., Urichsville, Ohio engaged in the production of load lifting and material handling equipment because the "contributed importantly" group eligibility requirement of Section 222(3) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, was not met.

On reconsideration, the Department conducted a survey of the major customers of the subject firm regarding their purchases of load lifting and material handling equipment during the relevant period. The survey revealed that a major customer increased their imports, while decreasing their purchases from the subject firm during the relevant period.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with load lifting and material handling equipment, contributed importantly to the declines in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of Ruger Equipment, Inc., Urichsville, Ohio. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Ruger Equipment, Inc., Urichsville, Ohio who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 1, 2001 through two years from date of certification are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
