The Commission may, prior to the expiration of the 150 day period, extend the time for action or institute a proceeding to afford parties an opportunity for written comments and for the oral presentation of views, data, and arguments.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before October 18, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This petition for rate approval is on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "FERRIS" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For Assistance, call (202) 502-8222 or for TTY (202) 502-8659. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings. See, 18 CFR 385.200(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-filing" link.

Gulf South Pipeline Company, LP; Notice of Proposed Changes to FERC Gas Tariff

October 4, 2002.

Take notice that on October 2, 2002, Gulf South Pipeline Company, LP (Gulf South) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, Seventh Revised Sheet No. 20; First Revised Sheet No. 3600; and Third Revised Sheet No. 3613, to become effective November 4, 2002.

As the Commission has not extended its policy, which provided for the removal of the rate ceiling for short-term capacity release transactions of less than one year until September 30, 2002, Gulf South proposes to remove tariff provisions associated with the former policy.

Gulf South states that copies of this filing have been served upon Gulf South's customers, state commissions and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Gulf South is revising the tariff sheets listed above in order simplify Gulf South's pro forma service agreements and to eliminate any possibility of confusion between the service agreement terms and conditions and other tariff provisions. The language from the standard terms and conditions of such agreements has either been eliminated or moved to another part of the tariff as more fully described below. Gulf South is also updating its tariff to eliminate its proprietary Operational Balancing Agreement form and proposes to utilize the NAESB Model Operational Balancing Agreement as the form document for its OBA agreements.

Gulf South states that copies of this filing have been served upon Gulf South's customers, state commissions and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations.
