

minimize the risk that cosmetics under their control will be subject to tampering or other malicious, criminal or terrorist actions. It takes the operator through each segment of the cosmetics production system that is within their control, in order to minimize the risk of tampering or other malicious, criminal or terrorist action at each segment. Implementation of these measures requires commitment from both management and employees to be successful and, therefore, both should participate in their development and review.

Both draft guidance documents are level 1 guidances issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The draft guidance documents, when finalized, will represent the agency's current thinking on appropriate measures that retail food store, food service, and cosmetics establishments may take to minimize the risk of foods or cosmetics under their control will be subjected to tampering or other malicious, criminal or terrorist actions. They do not create or confer any rights for or on any person and do not operate to bind FDA or the public.

II. Comments

Interested persons may submit to the Dockets Management Branch (see ADDRESSES) written or electronic comments on either draft guidance document at any time. Two copies of any mailed comments are to be submitted, except that individuals may submit one copy. Comments are to be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. The draft guidance documents and received comments are available for public examination in the Dockets Management Branch between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

III. Electronic Access

Copies of these draft guidance documents also are available on the Internet at <http://www.cfsan.fda.gov/guidance.html>.
