On October 23, 2002, a U.S. District Court in the Northern District of Texas convicted Ihsan Elashyi, also known as Ihsan Elashi and Sammy Elashyi ("Elashyi") of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701-1707 (2000)) ("IEEPA"), among other crimes. Specifically, the Court found that Elashyi knowingly and willfully violated a regulation and order of the United States Department of Commerce, to wit, the Temporary Denial Order of September 6, 2001, by participating in a transaction involving the exporting and attempted exporting of goods and commodities that were subject to the Export Administration Regulations from the United States to Saudi Arabia.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C. app. 2401-2420 (2000)) ("Act")¹ provides that, at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce,² no person convicted of violating any of a number of federal criminal statutes including the IEEPA shall be eligible to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act or the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR parts 730 through 774 (2003)) ("Regulations"), for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

Pursuant to §§ 766.25 and 750.8(a) of the regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the IEEPA, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person's export privileges for a period of up to 10 years from the date of conviction and shall also determine whether to revoke any license previously issued to such a person.

In addition, pursuant to §§ 766.25(h) and 766.23 of the regulations, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, may take action to make applicable to related persons an order that is being sought or that has been issued ("related person").

Having received notice of Elashyi's conviction for violating the IEEPA, and after providing notice and an opportunity for Elashyi and the related persons to make a written submission to the Bureau of Industry and Security before issuing an Order denying Elashyi's export privileges, and naming Tetrabal Corporation, Inc., Maysoon Al Kayali, Mynet.net Corporation and Al Kayali Corporation as related persons, as provided in § 766.25 of the regulations, and having read and carefully considered Elashyi's response of May 16, 2003, I, following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, have decided to deny Elashyi's export privileges for a period of seven years from the date of Elashyi's conviction, and name Tetrabal Corporation, Inc., Maysoon Al Kayali, Mynet.net Corporation and Al Kayali Corporation as related persons. The seven-year period ends on October 23, 2009. I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act in which Elashyi or the related persons had an interest at the time of Elashyi's conviction.

Accordingly, it is hereby Ordered:

I. Until October 23, 2009, Ihsan Elashyi, also known as Ihsan Elashi and

Sammy Elashyi, currently incarcerated at: USM No: 26265-177, FCI Seagoville, 2113 North Highway 175, Seagoville, Texas 75159, and with an address at 605 Trail Lake Drive, Richardson, Texas 75081, ("the denied person") and the following persons subject to the order by their relationship to the denied person, Tetrabal Corporation, Inc., Maysoon Al Kayali, Mynet.net Corporation and Al Kayali Corporation, all at the same address of 605 Trail Lake Drive, Richardson, Texas 75081, ("the related persons") (together, the denied person and the related persons are "persons subject to this order") may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the EAR, including, but not limited to:

Notice of Preliminary Results, Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, and Preliminary Determination To Not Revoke Order in Part: Canned Pineapple Fruit From Thailand

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: In response to requests by producers/exporters of subject merchandise and by the petitioners, the Department of Commerce (the Department) is conducting an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on canned pineapple fruit (CPF) from Thailand. This review covers seven producers/exporters of the subject merchandise. The review of one additional company is being rescinded because it did not ship during the period of review (POR), July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2002.

We preliminarily determine that for certain producers/exporters sales have been made below normal value (NV). If these preliminary results are adopted in our final results, we will instruct the U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (BCBP) to assess antidumping duties based on the difference between the export price (EP) or the constructed export price (CEP), as applicable, and the NV.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 27, 2003.
