SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) requires that the Director of OMB provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) may amend or waive the requirement for public consultation to the extent that public participation in the approval process would defeat the purpose of the information collection, violate State or Federal law, or substantially interfere with any agency's ability to perform its statutory obligations. Each proposed information collection, grouped by office, contains the following: (1) Type of review requested, e.g., new, revision, extension, existing or reinstatement; (2) Title; (3) Summary of the collection; (4) Description of the need for, and proposed use of, the information; (5) Respondents and frequency of collection; and (6) Reporting and/or Recordkeeping burden. Title: What Works Clearinghouse Database Forms and Customer Survey.

Abstract: The What Works Clearinghouse (WWC) public submission databases will allow members of the public to submit nominations for studies, interventions, and topics that they would like the WWC to review. The evaluation database will enable the WWC to provide the public with a directory of available outcome evaluations. Data from the customer survey will be used to create indicators of how successfully the WWC is meeting the needs of various groups of its users.

Additional Information: The Department is requesting emergency processing for this information collection with an OMB approval date of September 11. The time required for the normal clearance process may cause a delay in the collection that could potentially result in public harm. The What Works Clearinghouse (WWC) was conceptualized to help education decision makers—primarily practitioners and policymakers—respond to the emphasis in No Child Left Behind to use scientifically based research to select effective education interventions. The WWC will provide educators, policymakers, and the public with a central, independent, and trusted source scientific evidence of what works in education. The work of the WWC and thus, the products cannot proceed without some input from the public.
