[Public Notice 4447]

Determination Pursuant to Section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224 Relating to the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK)

Acting under the authority of section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224 of September 23, 2001, as amended by Executive Order 13286 of July 2, 2002, and Executive Order 13284 of January 23, 2003, and in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of Homeland Security, I hereby determine that the MEK uses or has used as aliases the names "National Council of Resistance" ("NCR"), and "National Council of Resistance of Iran" ("NCRI"). I hereby amend the October 31, 2001, designation of the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK and other aliases) to add the following names as aliases of MEK:

"National Council of Resistance" ("NCR") (including its U.S. representative office and all other offices worldwide); and

"National Council of Resistance of Iran" ("NCRI") (including its U.S. representative office and all other offices worldwide).

I also hereby clarify that the October 31, 2001 designation of the People's Mujahedin Organization of Iran, a.k.a. PMOI, as aliases of the MEK includes its U.S. representative office and all other offices worldwide.

Consistent with the determination in section 10 of Executive Order 13224 that "prior notice to persons determined to be subject to the Order who might have a constitutional presence in the United States would render ineffectual the blocking and other measures authorized in the Order because of the ability to transfer funds instantaneously," I determine that no prior notice need be provided to any person subject to this determination who might have a constitutional presence in the United States, because to do so would render ineffectual the measures authorized in the Order.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register.

SUMMARY: The Office for the Promotion of Human Rights and Democracy of the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor (DRL/PHD) announces an open competition for assistance awards. Organizations may submit grant proposals that address programs and activities that foster democracy, human rights, press freedoms, and the rule of law in Sub-Saharan Africa.

HRDF projects must not duplicate or simply add to efforts by other entities.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Bureau of Democracy Human Rights and Labor has identified the following issues and countries as priorities.

1. Support independent media and access to information. Inform population of legal rights and responsibilities. - Project activity should take place in Sub-Saharan Africa. U.S.-based or exchange projects are strongly discouraged.
- Projects that have a strong academic or research focus will not be highly considered. DRL will not fund health, technology, environmental, or scientific projects unless they have an explicit democracy, human rights, or rule of law component. Conferences likewise will not be highly considered.
- Projects should include a follow-on plan that extends beyond the grant period ensuring that Bureau-supported programs are not isolated events.

In order to avoid the duplication of activities and programs, proposals should also indicate knowledge of similar projects being conducted in the region and how the submitted proposal will complement them.

Proposals may also be reviewed by the Office of the Legal Adviser or by other Department elements.

Review Criteria

Eligible applications will be competitively reviewed according to the criteria stated below. Further explanation of these criteria is included in the PSI. These criteria are not rank-ordered and all carry equal weight in the proposal evaluation: quality of the program idea; program planning and ability to achieve program objectives; multiplier effect/impact; institution's record/ability/capacity; cost-effectiveness.

Some grants may be awarded under the aegis of the Father John Kaiser Memorial Fund which endeavors to advance the work and values of Father John Kaiser with respect to solving ethnic conflict and promoting government accountability and respect for human rights.
