

listed species incidental to, and not the purpose of, otherwise lawful activities. Section 10(a)(1)(B) of the ESA provides for authorizing incidental take of listed species. NMFS regulations governing permits for threatened and endangered species are promulgated at 50 CFR 222.307.

Species Covered in This Notice

The following species are included in the conservation plan and Permit application: loggerhead (Caretta caretta), green (Chelonia mydas), and Kemp's ridley (Lepidochelys kempii) sea turtles.

Background

GSML is a non-profit scientific and educational institution that holds an IRS 501(c)3 certificate of tax exemption and conducts sea turtle research and conservation activities. GSML uses small trawls (under 500 sq. ft. (46.5 sq. m)) without turtle excluder devices (TEDs) to collect marine fish, invertebrates and algae. Trawl times are less than 30 minutes in duration. GSML sells the marine organisms it catches to public aquariums, schools, research laboratories, and biomedical institutions. It utilizes the revenue to support its environmental education and sea turtle protection programs. The issuance of a Permit will allow for the continued harvest of marine fish, invertebrates and algae by GSML.

This application includes the Kemp's ridley, green and loggerhead sea turtles. This fishing activity does not target sea turtles, and while thus far GSML has not taken any turtles with the fishing gear it now uses, a take of one turtle every 3 years is anticipated. No mortalities are expected should this take occur.

The types of activities and effects that are considered under the ESA section 10 permitting process vary in complexity and degree of impact. Despite authorization of some small level of incidental take, the action authorized under a low-effect permit has a minor or negligible effect on the species covered in the permit. The determination of whether an incidental take permit qualifies for the low-effect category must be based on its anticipated impacts prior to implementation of the mitigation plan. Low-effect incidental take permits are categorically excluded from NEPA. NMFS has determined that this Permit (1417) qualifies for the low-effect category. Only one turtle is anticipated to be taken every 3 years, and these takes are expected to be non-lethal and result in zero injury.

Conservation Plan

The conservation plan prepared by GSML describes measures designed to minimize and mitigate the impacts of any incidental takes of ESA-listed sea turtles. It includes provisions to ensure that any captured sea turtles in need of resuscitation are provided such care, per NMFS guidelines. Additionally, any animals needing medical attention or rehabilitation will be cared for by authorized persons and facilities.

The conservation plan will mitigate the impacts of any incidental takes of ESA-listed sea turtles by helping turtles that have been put at risk or harmed due to interactions with other fisheries in the area. Specifically, GSML will remove any turtles it encounters ensnared in fishing lines, nets, and trap ropes. If any of these sea turtles require care, GSML will transport them to a rehabilitation facility.

This conservation plan will be funded through GSML revenues derived from the sale of the marine fish, invertebrates, and algae collected from trawling, donations from membership in its aquarium, and from grants and contracts.

This notice is provided pursuant to section 10(c) of the ESA and the National Environmental Policy Act regulations (40 CFR 1506.6). NMFS will evaluate the application, associated documents, and submitted comments to determine whether the application meets the requirements of the ESA Section 10(a) permitting process. If it is determined that the requirements are met, a permit will be issued for incidental takes of ESA-listed sea turtles under the jurisdiction of NMFS. The final permit determinations will not be completed until after the end of the 30-day comment period and will fully consider all public comments received during the comment period. NMFS will publish a record of its final action in the Federal Register.
