DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

Notice of Intent to Repatriate a Cultural Item: Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University, Athens, OH

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is here given in accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 43 CFR 10.8 (f), of the intent to repatriate a cultural item in the possession of the Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University, Athens, OH, which meets the definitions of sacred object and cultural patrimony under 25 U.S.C. 3001.

This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA, 25 U.S.C. 3003 (d)(3). The determinations within this notice are the sole responsibility of the museum, institution, or Federal agency that has control of the cultural item. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations within this notice.

The cultural item is a Knifewing god ceremonial altar from the Little Fire Fraternity of the Zuni Tribe. The altar, dating from the 1930s or 1940s, consists of two pieces of wood painted red, yellow, blue, and black. One piece is approximately 14 inches wide, 15 inches long, and 4 inches deep; the other is 15 inches wide, 6 inches long, and 1/2 inch deep. The altar is decorated with feathers tentatively identified as flicker, blue jay, and eagle feathers.

The object was discovered in the museum's storage area in 2001 by the curator, who recognized it as a Zuni altar. The Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico was then notified. Information provided by Zuni tribal representatives confirms that a relationship of shared group identity exists between the original makers of the ceremonial altar and the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico. There are no museum records or other documentation pertaining to the altar's collection history or acquisition by the museum.

Representatives of the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico indicated during consultation that the cultural item is a specific ceremonial object needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Representatives of the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico have also provided evidence that this cultural item has ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the tribe itself, and could not have been alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual tribal or organizational member. Evidence presented by Zuni representatives during consultation indicates that rites of the Little Fire Fraternity are still performed in the Zuni Tribe. Altars for the ceremonies should only be in the possession of a member of the Little Fire Fraternity capable of understanding the altar's use and function. In Zuni tradition, altars can only be cared for by an individual; they are not property that can be owned.

Officials of the Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(C), the cultural item described above is a specific ceremonial object needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University have also determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(D), the cultural item has ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to a Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual. Lastly, officials of the Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (2) there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the sacred object/object of cultural patrimony and the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico.

Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with the sacred object/object of cultural patrimony should contact Dr. Jennifer McLerran, Curator, Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University, Lin Hall, Athens, OH 45701, telephone (740) 593-0952 or (749) 593-1304, facsimile (740) 593-1305, before May 12, 2004. Repatriation of this object to the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico may proceed after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

The Kennedy Museum of Art, Ohio University is responsible for notifying the Zuni Tribe of the Zuni Reservation, New Mexico that this notice has been published.

Dated: February 25, 2004.

John Robbins,

Assistant Director, Cultural Resources.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

Realty Action Notice

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of Realty Action—Proposed exchange of interests in federally-owned land for privately-owned land in Camden County, State of Georgia, Cumberland Island National Seashore.

SUMMARY: The following described federally-owned land acquired by the National Park Service has been determined to be suitable for disposal by exchange. The selected Federal land is within the boundary of Cumberland Island National Seashore. The authority for this exchange is section 2 of Public Law 92-536 (86 Stat. 1066), which authorized the Secretary of the Interior to acquire lands, waters, and interests therein on the Cumberland Island National Seashore by purchase, donation, or exchange, and section 5 of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act Amendments in Pub. L. 90-401 (80 Stat. 356), approved July 15, 1968. This notice is published pursuant to Section 11.5.1 of the National Park Service Land Acquisition Procedures Manual.

DATES: Comments on this proposed land exchange will be accepted until May 27, 2004.

ADDRESS: Detailed information concerning this exchange including the precise legal descriptions, Land Protection Plan, and environmental assessment are available at Cumberland Island National Seashore, P.O. Box 806, St. Marys, Georgia 31558. Comments may also be mailed to this address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Superintendent, Cumberland Island National Seashore, P.O. Box 806, St. Marys, Georgia 31558, Telephone: 912-882-4336, E-mail: Cuis_Superintendent@nps.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Fee ownership of the following federally-owned property is to be exchanged: Tract Number 02-213 is a 32.14-acre upland tract in the southern portion of Cumberland Island National Seashore. This tract includes a life estate (15.1 acres, with dwelling) and is located immediately to the north of, and contiguous to, a private tract of 206.13 acres owned by Greyfield Land Corp. In exchange for the foregoing lands, the United States of America will acquire a 52.2-acre tract (NPS Tract No. 02-212) containing 21 acres of upland. This tract is owned by Greyfield Ltd. and lies within an area designated by Congress as potential wilderness.

The terms of the exchange are set forth in a contract by and among Greyfield Ltd., The Nature Conservancy, and the National Park Service. The parties agreed to the exchange in order to resolve a dispute that arose during the sale of the former Greyfield North tract to The Nature Conservancy for eventual conveyance to the National Park Service. As a result of the exchange agreement, the parties completed the final phases of the Greyfield North transaction in 1999, with the understanding that the land exchange was to be completed by July 1, 2004.

An archeological survey completed in 2003 revealed that the exchange tract contains potentially significant archeological resources that may be eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. The National Park Service has determined that the proposed exchange would have an adverse effect on these resources. Accordingly, the National Park Service proposes to mitigate this adverse effect by conducting extensive data recovery from the site, with curation, prior to the exchange.

The value of the properties to be exchanged shall be determined by a current fair market appraisal and if they are not appropriately equal, the values shall be equalized by payment of cash as circumstances require.

Interested parties may submit written comments to the address listed in the ADDRESSES paragraph. Adverse comments will be evaluated and this action may be modified or vacated accordingly. In the absence of any action to modify or vacate, this realty action will become the final determination of the Department of the Interior.

Dated: January 5, 2004.

Patricia A. Hooks,

Acting Regional Director, Southeast Region.
