SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

In the Federal Register of August 11, 2000 (65 FR 49247), FDA published a notice announcing the availability of a draft guidance for industry entitled "Botanical Drug Products." In a notice published in the Federal Register of December 15, 2000 (65 FR 78496), FDA reopened the comment period on the draft guidance until March 15, 2001.

FDA received a number of comments on the botanical drugs draft guidance. FDA has made a few substantive changes along with several editorial revisions to the draft guidance. For example, FDA has revised the guidance to emphasize the importance of maintaining batch-to-batch consistency in the drug substance and drug product used throughout the clinical development process. FDA also is adding to the final guidance a section that provides answers to what the agency expects may be frequently asked questions concerning the guidance.

II. Description of the Guidance

The guidance is intended to encourage the clinical study and submission for marketing approval of botanical drug products. The guidance explains the circumstances under which FDA regulations require approval of an NDA submitted under section 505(b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 355(b)) before marketing a botanical drug and when such a drug may be marketed under an OTC drug monograph. The guidance also provides scientific and regulatory guidance to sponsors about conducting initial and expanded clinical investigations of botanical drugs, including those botanical products currently lawfully marketed as foods and dietary supplements in the United States.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the agency's current thinking on the development of botanical drug products. It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. An alternative approach may be used if such approach satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

III. Comments

Interested persons may submit to the Division of Dockets Management (see ADDRESSES) written or electronic comments on the guidance at any time. Two copies of mailed comments are to be submitted, except that individuals may submit one copy. Comments are to be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. The guidance and received comments are available for public examination in the Division of Dockets Management between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

IV. The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This guidance contains no new information collection provisions that are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The guidance explains the circumstances under which FDA regulations require approval of an NDA for marketing a botanical drug product and when such a product may be marketed under an OTC drug monograph. The regulations governing the preparation and submission of an NDA are in part 314 (21 CFR part 314), and the guidance does not contain any recommendations that exceed the requirements of these regulations. FDA estimated the information collection requirements resulting from the preparation and submission of an NDA, and OMB approved the reporting and recordkeeping burden until March 31, 2005, under OMB control number 0910-0001. FDA anticipates that any NDAs submitted for botanical drug products would be included under the burden estimates approved by OMB for part 314.

The regulations on the procedures for classifying OTC drugs as generally recognized as safe and effective and not misbranded, and for establishing OTC drug monographs, are set forth in § 330.10 (21 CFR 330.10). FDA believes that any botanical drug products that may be eligible for inclusion in an OTC drug monograph under current § 330.10 have already been or presently are being considered for such inclusion.

The guidance also provides scientific and regulatory guidance to sponsors on conducting clinical investigations of botanical drugs. The regulations governing the preparation and submission of INDs are in part 312 (21 CFR part 312). The guidance does not contain any recommendations that exceed the requirements in those regulations. FDA estimated the information collection requirements resulting from the preparation and submission of an IND under part 312, and OMB approved the reporting and recordkeeping burden until January 31, 2006, under OMB control number 0910-0014.

Regulatory History

This request constitutes the 30-day notice required by OIRA. The Coast Guard has already published the 60-day notice required by OIRA (68 FR 60110, October 21, 2003). That notice elicited no comments.

Request for Comments

The Coast Guard invites comments on the proposed collection of information to determine whether the collection is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Department. In particular, the Coast Guard would appreciate comments addressing: (1) The practical utility of the collection; (2) the accuracy of the Department's estimated burden of the collection; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information that is the subject of the collection; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of collection on respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Comments, to DMS or OIRA, must contain the OMB Control Number of the ICR addressed. Comments to DMS must contain the docket number of this request, USCG 2003-16298 comments to OIRA are best assured of having their full effect if OIRA receives them 30 or fewer days after the publication of this request.

Information Collection Request

Title: Customer Satisfaction Surveys.

OMB Control Number: 1625-0080.

Type of Request: Reinstatement, with change, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.

Affected Public: Recreational boaters, commercial mariners, industry groups, and State and local governments.

Form: This collection of information does not require the public to fill out forms, but does require submitting information to the Coast Guard in written or electronic format.

Abstract: Putting people first means ensuring that the Federal Government provides the highest quality of service possible to the American people. Executive Order 12862, requires that all executive departments and agencies providing significant services directly to the public seek to meet established standards of customer service and (1) identify the customers who are, or should be, served by the agency and (2) survey customers to determine the kind and quality of services they want and their level of satisfaction with existing services.

Burden: The estimated burden is 5,847 hours a year. This estimate represents an increase of 847 hours from the estimate in our 60-day notice.

Dated: May 27, 2004.

Information Collection Requests

1. Title: Alternative Compliance for International and Inland Navigation Rules—33 CFR Parts 81 and 89.

OMB Control Number: 1625-0019.

Summary: The information collected provides an opportunity for an owner, operator, builder, or agent of a unique vessel to present their reasons why the vessel cannot comply with existing International/Inland Navigation Rules and how alternative compliance can be achieved. If appropriate, a Certificate of Alternative Compliance is issued.

Need: Certain vessels cannot comply with the International Navigation Rules (33 U.S.C. 1601-1608) and Inland Navigation Rules (33 U.S.C. 2001-2073). The Coast Guard thus provides an opportunity for alternative compliance. However, it is not possible to determine whether alternative compliance is appropriate, or what kind of alternative procedures might be necessary, without this collection.

Respondents: Vessel owners, operators, builders and agents.

Frequency: One-time application.

Burden Estimate: The estimated burden is 180 hours a year.

2. Title: Various International Agreement Pollution Prevention
