BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Drug Enforcement Administration

ALRA Laboratories, Inc. Order Denying Procurement Quota

On July 26, 2002, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), issued an Order to Show Cause to ALRA Laboratories, Inc. (ALRA) of Gurnee, Illinois, notifying ALRA of an opportunity to show cause as to why DEA should not revoke ALRA's DEA Certificate of Registration, RA0205193, under 21 U.S.C. 823(a) and (d) and 824(a)(4) and deny any pending applications for renewal or modification of ALRA's manufacturing registration. As a basis for revocation, the Order to Show Cause alleged that ALRA's continued registration was inconsistent with the public interest, citing a long history of regulatory violations dating from 1987 and the 1996 criminal conviction of ALRA's President and Chief Executive Officer, Baldev Ray Bhutani, of seven felony counts of violating the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act by introducing adulterated pharmaceuticals into commerce. The Order to Show Cause further notified ALRA that should no request for a hearing be filed within 30 days, its hearing right would be deemed waived.

The Order to Show Cause was sent by certified mail to ALRA's registered location at 3850 Clearview Court, Gurnee, Illinois 60031. According to its return receipt, the Order to Show Cause was received at the registered address by Sandra Montana on or around August 5, 2002.

Additionally, on September 27, 2002, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. 826(c) and (d), the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, issued an Order to Deny Procurement Quota on the ground that ALRA's anticipated requirements for the then-current and following years did not justify its request. The Order to Deny Procurement Quota noted that on May 23, 2002, ALRA had submitted a procurement request for, inter alia, cocaine, oxycodone and methadone. The denial order recited ALRA's history of regulatory violations set forth in the Order to Show Cause, the June 30, 2002, expiration of its DEA manufacturing registration, Mr. Bhutani's 1996 conviction and following exhaustion of appeals, commencement of his 30 month prison sentence in September 2002. The Order to Deny Procurement Quota further notified ALRA that should no request for a hearing be filed within 30 days, its hearing right would be deemed waived.

The Order to Deny Procurement Quota was sent by certified mail on September 27, 2002, to ALRA's registered address in Illinois and according to its return receipt, was receipted for by Neelam Bhutani on or around October 31, 2002.

DEA has not received a request for hearing or any other reply from ALRA or anyone purporting to represent it in this matter on either the Order to Show Cause or the Order to Deny Procurement Quota. Therefore, the Deputy Administrator, finding that (1) 30 days have passed since the receipt of the Order to Show Cause and Order Denying Procurement Quota, and (2) no request for a hearing having been received, concludes that ALRA is deemed to have waived its hearing right as to both Orders. See Samuel S. Jackson, D.D.S., 67 FR 65145 (2002); David W. Linder, 67 FR 12579 (2002). After considering material from the investigative file, the Deputy Administrator now enters her final order without a hearing pursuant to 21 CFR 1303.34(e) and 1303.37.

The Deputy Administrator's review of the investigative file reveals that ALRA has been registered as a manufacturer with DEA since 1995 to handle controlled substances in Schedules II, III, III-N, IV and V under DEA registration number RA0205193. That registration was last renewed on May
