SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background. On July 31, 1978, the Department of the Treasury issued a countervailing duty order on imports of sugar from the European Union (43 FR 33237). There was no Commission determination of material injury by reason of subsidized imports prior to issuance of the order because imports from the European Union were not eligible for an injury test unless they were duty free. However, pursuant to section 104 of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979, the Commission made a determination in May 1982 that the domestic industry producing sugar would be threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of sugar from the European Union if the countervailing duty order covering such imports were to be revoked. On June 13, 1979, following affirmative injury determinations by the Commission, the Department of the Treasury issued antidumping findings on imports of sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany (44 FR 33878). Following five-year reviews by Commerce and the Commission, effective October 28, 1999, Commerce issued a continuation of the countervailing duty order on imports of sugar from the European Union and the antidumping findings on imports of sugar from Belgium, France, and Germany (64 FR 58033). The Commission is now conducting second reviews to determine whether revocation of the order and findings would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to the domestic industry within a reasonably foreseeable time. It will assess the adequacy of interested party responses to this notice of institution to determine whether to conduct full reviews or expedited reviews. The Commission's determinations in any expedited reviews will be based on the facts
