

terms applicable to the award. The NGA will serve as the official notification of a grant award and will state the amount of Federal funds awarded.

Applicants whose applications are declared ineligible will receive written notification of the eligibility determination and their original grant application via postal mail. The ineligible notification will include information regarding the rationale for the ineligible decision citing specific information from the original grant application. Applicants who are approved but unfunded and disapproved will receive a copy of the Executive Summary which identifies the weaknesses and strengths of the application submitted.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements

- 45 CFR Part 92, "Department of Health and Human Services, Uniform Administrative Requirements for State and Local Governments Including Indian Tribes," or 45 CFR Part 74, "Administrative of Non-Profit Recipients"

- Appropriate Cost Principals: OMB Circular 87, "State and local governments," or OMB Circular A-122, "None-Profit Organizations"

- OMB Circular A-133, "Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations"

3. Reporting

Grantees are responsible and accountable for accurate reporting of the Progress Reports and Financial Status Reports which are required semi-annually. These report will include a brief comparison of actual accomplishments to the goals established for the period, reasons for slippage (if applicable), and other pertinent information as required. Financial Status Reports (SF 269)—Semi annual financial reports must be submitted within 30 of the end of the half year. A Final Financial Status Reports (SF 269) are due within 90 days of expiration of the budget/project period and must be verified from the grantee records on how the value was derived. Grantees are allowed a reasonable period of time in which to submit required financial and performance reports.

Failure to submit required reports within the time allowed may result in suspension or termination of an active grant, withholding of additional awards for the project, or other enforcement actions such as withholding of payments or converting to the reimbursement method of payment. Continued failure to submit required reports may result in the imposition of special award provisions, or cause other eligible projects or activities involving that grantee organization, or the individual responsible for the delinquency to not be funded.

VII. Agency Contact(s)

1. Questions on the programmatic and technical issues may be directed to: Alberta Becenti, Health Promotion/ Disease Prevention Consultant, (301) 443-4305, (301) 443-8170, abecenti@hqe.ihs.gov.

2. Question on grants management and fiscal matters may be directed to: Patricia Spottedhorse, Grants Management Specialist, (301) 443-5204, (301) 443-9602, PSpotted@hqe.ihs.gov.

The Public Health Service strongly encourages all grant and contact recipients to provide a smoke-free workplace and promote the non-use of tobacco products. In addition, Public Law 103-227, the Pro-Children Act of 1994, prohibits smoking in certain facilities (or in some cases, any portion of the facility) in which regular or routine education, library, day care, health care or early childhood development services are provided to children.

This is consistent with the Public Health Service mission to protect and advance the physical and mental health of the American people.

BILLING CODE 4810-32-P

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Agency Information Collection Activities: New Information Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: 30-day notice of information collection under review: Notice of appeal to the Administrative Appeals Office, Form 1-290B.

The Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

The USCIS published a Federal Register notice on February 9, 2004 at 69 FR 5994, allowed for a 60-day period public comment period. The USCIS did not receive any comments on this information collection.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until [Insert date of 30th day from the date that this notice is published in the Federal Register]. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the collection of information should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of Information Collection: New information collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Unit.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Homeland Security sponsoring the collection: I-290B, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Individuals or Households. The information collection required on the Form I-290B is necessary in order for USCIS to make a determination that the appeal or motion to reopen or reconsider meet eligibility requirements, and for the Administrative Appeals Office to adjudicate the merits of the appeal or motion to reopen or reconsider.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 30,000 responses at 30 minutes (.50 hours) per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 15,000 annual burden hours.

If you have comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the information collection, please contact Richard A. Sloan (202) 272-8380, Director, Regulatory Management Division, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20592; (202) 272-8377.

Dated: April 8, 2005.

Richard A. Sloan,

Director, Regulatory Management Division,
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.
