Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Park System Resource Protection Act ("PSRPS")

Pursuant to 28 CFR 50.7, notice is hereby given that on May 5, 2005, a proposed Consent Decree in Travelers v. Nudel and United States and United States v. Nudel and M/V GI Jack, 04-20015-CIV-Cooke/Brown (S.D.Fl.), was lodged with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

In this action the United States sought to recover against Defendants Jack Nudel and M/V GI Jack costs for response and damage assessment and damages arising from the grounding of the M/V GI Jack in Biscayne National Park on November 12, 2001.

Under the Consent Decree, Defendant Nudel will perform primary restoration of seagrass damaged by the grounding and compensatory restoration of an area near the grounding site. Defendant

Nudel will also pay the United States $3,272.58 in reimbursement of the United States' damage assessment and response costs and $7,000 toward the cost of National Park Service oversight of the restoration work.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to Travelers v. Nudel and United States and United States v. Nudel and M/V GI Jack, 04-20015-CIV-Cooke/Brown (S.D.Fl.), DOJ Ref. 90-11-2-08248.

The Consent Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, Southern District of Florida, 99 NE. 4th Street, Civil Division, Suite 300, Miami, Florida 33132, and at the National Park Service, Environmental Quality Division, Environmental Response, Damage Assessment and Restoration Branch, 77 Forsyth Street, SW., Suite G-4, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. During the public comment period, the Consent Decree may also be examined on the following Department of Justice Web site <http://www.usdoj.gov/enrd/open.htm>. A copy of the Consent Decree may also be obtained by mail from the Consent Decree Library, P.O. Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Electronic Healthcare Network Accreditation Commission

Notice is hereby given that, on March 8, 2005, pursuant to section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), Electronic Healthcare Network Accreditation Commission ("EHNAC") has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the name and principal place of business of the standards development organization and (2) the nature and scope of its standards development activities. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances.

Pursuant to section 6(b) of the Act, the name and principal place of business of the standards development organization is: Electronic Healthcare Network Accreditation Commission, Farmington, CT. The nature and scope of EHNAC's standards development activities are: to set standards for electronic health care industry participants to facilitate the electronic transmission of bills and payments in a manner consistent with all federal laws and regulations. EHNAC establishes criteria to determine whether individual electronic industry participants are compliant with industry standards, and it provides accreditation to electronic health care industry participants to certify that such participants are compliant with applicable standards. The standards promote excellence, innovation, cooperation, open competition and timely regulatory compliance within the health care industry in order to improve the quality of healthcare delivery, to protect the security and privacy of patient-identifiable information and achieve administrative simplification and cost savings.
