ANR Pipeline Company; Notice of Negotiated Rate Filing

June 1, 2005.

Take notice that on May 24, 2005, ANR Pipeline Company (ANR) tendered for filing and approval amendments to two previously approved negotiated rate service agreements, and one new negotiated rate agreement, entered into between ANR and Wisconsin Electric Power Company (WEPCO), pursuant to ANR's Rate Schedules FTS-3 and NNS. ANR states that this filing also includes a new short-term maximum rate FTS-1 Agreement, as well as a discounted and amended short-term FTS-3 Agreement.

ANR requests that the Commission accept and approve the subject negotiated rate amendments/agreements to be effective in accordance with each agreement's respective term.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. #### CES Marketing VI, LLC, CES Marketing VII, LLC, CES Marketing VIII, LLC, CES Marketing IX, LLC and CES Marketing X, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

June 1, 2005.

CES Marketing VI, LLC, CES Marketing VII, LLC, CES Marketing VIII, LLC, CES Marketing IX, LLC, CES Marketing X, LLC (together, CESM VI-X) filed applications for market-based rate authority, with accompanying tariffs. The proposed rate tariff provides for wholesale sales of energy, capacity and ancillary services at market-based rates. CESM VI-X also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, CESM VI-X requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by CESM VI-X.

On May 26, 2005, the Commission granted the request for blanket approval under part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by CESM VI-X should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest, is June 27, 2005.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, CESM VI-X is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that CESM VI-X, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of CESM VI-X's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Commission's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's
