Maine: Proposed Authorization of State Hazardous Waste Management Program Revisions

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: Vermont has applied to EPA for Final authorization of changes to its hazardous waste program under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). EPA proposes to grant final authorization to Vermont. In the "Rules and Regulations" section of this Federal Register, EPA is authorizing these changes by an immediate final rule. EPA did not make a proposal prior to the immediate final rule because we believe this action is not controversial and do not expect adverse comments that oppose it. We have explained the reasons for this authorization in the preamble to the immediate final rule. Unless we get written adverse comments which oppose this authorization during the comment period, the immediate final rule will become effective on the date it establishes, and we will not take further action on this proposal. If we get comments that oppose this action, we will withdraw the immediate final rule and it will not take effect. We will then respond to public comments in a later final rule based on this proposal. You may not have another opportunity for comment. If you want to comment on this action, you should do so at this time.

Hazardous Materials: Requirements for Cylinders; Extension of Comment Period

AGENCY: Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA), Department of Transportation (DOT).

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM); extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: PHMSA is extending until September 6, 2005, the period for interested persons to submit comments on the March 9, 2005 notice of proposed rulemaking. In the March 9, 2005 NPRM, we proposed to amend the Hazardous Materials Regulations to adopt standards for the design, construction, maintenance and use of cylinders and multiple-element gas containers (MEGCs) based on the standards contained in the United Nations (UN) Recommendations on the Transport of Dangerous Goods. Aligning the HMR with the UN

Recommendations will promote flexibility, permit the use of technological advances for the manufacture of pressure receptacles, provide for a broader selection of pressure receptacles, reduce the need for exemptions, and facilitate international commerce in the transportation of compressed gases.

DATES: Submit comments by September 6, 2005. To the extent possible, we will consider comments received after this date in developing a final rule.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments identified by the docket number PHMSA-2005-17463 (HM-220E) by any of the following methods:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov> Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On March 9, 2005, the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA, we) published a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) under Docket No. PHMSA-2005-17463 (HM-220E) (70 FR 11768). In the NPRM, we proposed to amend the Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR; 49 CFR Parts 171-180) to adopt standards for the design, construction, maintenance and use of cylinders and multiple-element gas containers (MEGCs) based on the standards contained in the United Nations (UN) Recommendations on the Transport of Dangerous Goods. Aligning the HMR with the UN Recommendations will promote flexibility, permit the use of technological advances for the manufacture of pressure receptacles, provide for a broader selection of pressure receptacles, reduce the need for exemptions, and facilitate international commerce in the transportation of compressed gases. We proposed to incorporate by reference 21 new standards developed by the International Standards Organization (ISO) that contain the design, construction, testing and requalification requirements for the new UN cylinders and MEGCs. The 120-day comment period for the proposed rule was to end on July 7, 2005.

On June 10, 2005, Mr. Lawrence W. Bierlein filed comments to the docket on behalf of Arrowhead Industrial Services, Inc., requesting an extension of the comment period of an additional 90 days, until October 6, 2005. Arrowhead stated that after ordering the ISO standards, the comment period remaining provides insufficient time for them to complete their analysis, draft comments, and coordinate with associations and others involved in the process.

We agree the comment period should be extended to allow additional time for commenters to address the proposals. Therefore, we are allowing an additional 60 days for submission of comments, until September 6, 2005. We will consider comments received after this date to the extent possible in developing a final rule.

II. Regulatory Notice

Privacy Act

Anyone is able to search the electronic form of all comments received into any of our dockets by the name of the individual submitting the comment (or signing the comment, if submitted on behalf of an association, business, labor union, etc.). You may review DOT's complete Privacy Act Statement in the Federal Register published on April 11, 2000 (Volume 65, Number 70; Pages 19477-78) or you may visit <http://dms.dot.gov>.
