SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: GPRA requires Federal agencies to establish a strategic plan covering not less than a 5-year period, and to solicit the views and suggestions of those entities potentially affected by or interested in the plan. This notice represents one in a series of consultations seeking input from a variety of sources on the Corporation's draft strategic plan. The draft strategic plan is available on the Corporation's Web site at <http://www.NationalService.gov>. The draft plan includes the Corporation's mission statement and a description of strategic goals and implementation steps. The Corporation's annual operating plans and budgets are designed to implement the strategic plan. We would like to receive input from a wide range of organizations, public bodies, and other stakeholders. We especially encourage the views and suggestions of organizations sponsoring national service programs, state commissions on national and community service, state and local education agencies, other state and local government entities, other volunteer and service organizations, and Members of Congress. The Corporation also encourages comments from current and former participants in Corporation-funded national service programs and has sought the input of our own employees.

Please consider the following questions in providing your input:

- Does the document express the spirit and history of service while also explaining why Corporation-funded national service programs are critical today?
- Are the focus areas appropriate cross-program priorities for the agency for the next five years?
- Under the focus areas, have we identified strong strategies and targets?
- Will this Strategic Plan help you in your future planning?

Public Comment. It is the policy of the Corporation to encourage stakeholders in our programs and other interested parties to comment on the draft strategic plan. This policy is intended to provide a means for gathering a collection of opinions and perspectives that will enable us to make more informed decisions on matters that affect the future of our national service programs. In addition to written comments, which may be submitted in the manner set out above in the ADDRESSES section, input also may be provided by participating in one of our conference calls.

Conference Calls. During the month of August, the Corporation is planning three conference calls for the purpose of obtaining comments on the draft strategic plan. Please check our Web site at <http://www.NationalService.gov> for further information on dates, times, and other information regarding these conference calls, or contact Angela Martin at 202-606-6711 or amartin@cns.gov.

As you comment, please provide the rationale for any suggestions and identify whether you base your suggestions on participation in, or direct observation of, national service programs and activities conducted and supported by the Corporation. We anticipate publishing the final Strategic Plan for 2005-2010 in the fall of 2005, and making it available on our Web site at that time.

Dated: July 28, 2005.

Frank R. Trinity,

General Counsel.
