Title: NESHAP for the Surface Coating of Large Household and Commercial Appliances (Renewal).

ICR Numbers: EPA ICR Number 1954.04, OMB Control Number 2060-0457.

ICR Status: This ICR is scheduled to expire on June 30, 2009. Under OMB regulations, the Agency may continue to conduct or sponsor the collection of information while this submission is pending at OMB. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, and displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: The National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAP), for the Surface Coating of Large Household and Commercial Appliances were proposed on December 22, 2000 (65 FR 81133) and promulgated on July 23, 2002 (67 FR 48253).

These regulations apply to existing facilities and new facilities that perform surface coating of large household and commercial appliances and related parts where the total Hazardous Air Pollutants (HAPs) emitted are greater than or equal to 10 tons per year of any one HAP; or where the total HAPs emitted are greater than or equal to 25 tons per year of any combination of HAPs.

In general, all NESHAP standards require initial notifications, performance tests, and periodic reports by the owners/operators of the affected facilities. They are also required to maintain records of the occurrence and duration of any startup, shutdown, or malfunction in the operation of an affected facility, or any period during which the monitoring system is inoperative. These notifications, reports, and records are essential in determining compliance, and are required of all affected facilities subject to NESHAP.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 97 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: Large household and commercial appliance manufacturers.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 90.

Frequency of Response: Initially, occasionally, and semiannually.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 28,845.

Estimated Total Annual Cost: $2,498,984, which includes: $2,326,984 in labor costs, $64,000 in annualized Capital/Start-Up costs, and $108,000 in O&M costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is no change in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens.

Dated: April 17, 2009.

General Information

A. What Should I Consider as I Prepare My Comments for EPA?

1. Submitting CBI. Do not submit this information to EPA through <http://www.regulations.gov> or e-mail. Clearly mark the part or all of the information that you claim to be CBI. For CBI information in a disk or CD-ROM that you mail to EPA, mark the outside of the disk or CD-ROM as CBI and then identify electronically within the disk or CD-ROM the specific information that is claimed as CBI. In addition to one complete version of the comment that includes information claimed as CBI, a copy of the comment that does not contain the information claimed as CBI must be submitted for inclusion in the public docket. Information so marked will not be disclosed except in accordance with procedures set forth in 40 CFR part 2.

2. Tips for Preparing Your Comments. When submitting comments, remember to:

- Identify the rulemaking by docket number and other identifying information (subject heading, Federal Register date and page number).
- Follow directions—The agency may ask you to respond to specific questions or organize comments by referencing a Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) part or section number.
- Explain why you agree or disagree; suggest alternatives and substitute language for your requested changes.

• Describe any assumptions and provide any technical information and/or data that you used.

• If you estimate potential costs or burdens, explain how you arrived at your estimate in sufficient detail to allow for it to be reproduced.

• Provide specific examples to illustrate your concerns, and suggest alternatives.

• Explain your views as clearly as possible, avoiding the use of profanity or personal threats.

• Make sure to submit your comments by the comment period deadline identified.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Under section 108(a) of the Clean Air Act (CAA), the Administrator identifies and lists certain pollutants which "cause or contribute to air pollution which may reasonably be anticipated to endanger public health or welfare." The EPA then issues air quality criteria for listed pollutants, which are commonly referred to as "criteria pollutants." The air quality criteria are to "accurately reflect the latest scientific knowledge useful in indicating the kind and extent of all identifiable effects on public health or welfare which may be expected from the presence of [a] pollutant in the ambient air, in varying quantities." Under section 109 of the CAA, EPA establishes national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) for each listed pollutant, with the NAAQS based on the air quality criteria. Section 109(d) of the CAA requires periodic review and, if appropriate, revision of existing air quality criteria. The revised air quality criteria reflect advances in scientific knowledge on the effects of the pollutant on public health or welfare. The EPA is also required to periodically review and revise the NAAQS, if appropriate, based on the revised criteria.

Air quality criteria have been established for the sulfur oxides (SO_x) and NAAQS have been established for sulfur dioxide (SO₂), an indicator for SO_x. Presently, EPA is reviewing the air quality criteria for SO_x and the NAAQS for SO₂. As part of its review of the NAAQS, EPA has prepared an assessment of exposures and characterization of health risks associated with ambient SO₂. Planned approaches to assessing exposures and characterizing risks were described in the document, Sulfur Dioxide Health Assessment Plan: Scope and Methods for Exposure and Risk Assessment. This planning document was released for public review and comment in November 2007 and was the subject of a consultation with the Clean Air

Scientific Advisory Committee (CASAC) on December 5 and 6, 2007. Comments received from that consultation were considered in developing the "Risk and Exposure Assessment to Support the Review of the SO₂ Primary National Ambient Air Quality Standards: First Draft," which was released in July 2008.

The second draft document being released at this time conveys the approach taken to assess exposures to ambient SO₂ and to characterize associated health risks, as well as to present the results of those assessments. In addition, this document also contains a staff policy assessment that considers the evidence presented in the final Integrated Science Assessment (ISA) and the exposure and risk characterization results presented in this second draft document, as they relate to the adequacy of the current SO₂ NAAQS and any potential alternative primary SO₂ standards. This draft document will be available online at: http://www.epa.gov/ttn/naaqs/standards/so2/s_so2_cr_rea.html.

The EPA is soliciting advice and recommendations from the CASAC by means of a review of the draft document at an upcoming public meeting of the CASAC scheduled for April 16–17, 2009 in Chapel Hill, NC. Information about this public meeting will be published as a separate notice in the Federal Register. Following the CASAC meeting, EPA will consider comments received from the CASAC and the public in preparing a final risk and exposure assessment report.

Dated: March 18, 2009.

Director, Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards.
