DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

31 CFR Part 1

Freedom of Information Act, Privacy Act of 1974; Implementation

AGENCY: Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends the Department of the Treasury's regulations on the disclosure of records under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and its regulations concerning the Privacy Act of 1974 (Privacy Act). It also amends the appendices to these subparts setting forth the administrative procedures by which the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program ("SIGTARP") will process requests for records made under the FOIA, and setting forth the administrative procedures by which SIGTARP will implement the Privacy Act. In addition, the document revises the list of Treasury offices and bureaus found in this part.

DATES: Effective Date: January 6, 2010.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dale Underwood, Privacy Act Officer, Department of the Treasury, phone number 202-622-0874 or dale.underwood@do.treas.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: These regulations update the list of Treasury bureaus and offices enumerated in 31 CFR 1.1 and 1.20, and more closely reflect the organization of the Department as set out in Treasury Order 101-05, "Reporting Relationships and Supervision of Officials, Offices and Bureaus, Delegation of Certain Authority, and Order of Succession in the Department of the Treasury" dated February 19, 2008.

Language is being added to the first paragraph of Section 1.1 to permit offices and bureaus to issue supplementary regulations applicable only to the component in question, which are consistent with the regulations. This will conform 31 CFR Section 1.1 with the language found in 31 CFR Section 1.20. Another change is to consistently use the term "component" in Section 1.1 and 1.20 rather than using the term "offices and bureaus" in one and "components" in the other.

The document also amends 31 CFR part 1 and the FOIA and Privacy Act procedures of Treasury's Departmental Offices found in the appendices to subparts A and C of this Part. It reflects the creation of the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program (SIGTARP) authorized under Section 121 of The Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 ("Act"), Public Law 110-343. As an independent office of the Department of Treasury, SIGTARP is responsible for coordinating and conducting audits and investigations of the Troubled Asset Relief Program established by the Secretary under the Act.

The passage of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 established the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) as a bureau of the Department of the Treasury and transferred certain functions of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms to the Department of Justice. Three other bureaus, the United States Customs Service, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, and the United States Secret Service, were transferred to the Department of Homeland Security. This final rule makes the necessary housekeeping changes to reflect the transfer of these bureaus and functions to other Federal Departments and the establishment of SIGTARP by revising the list of Treasury bureaus and offices and re-designating the respective paragraphs of Sections 1.1 and 1.20.

As part of the review undertaken to identify minor changes to the regulations in Subpart C it was found that a system of records that had been deleted from the Department's inventory of systems of records on April 17, 1992, at 57 FR 13900 had not been removed from the list of Privacy Act systems of records for which an exemption has been claimed pursuant to 5 USC 552a (k)(2). The final regulation makes this correction to Section 1.36 of subpart C, Paragraph (g)(1)(v)(iii) by removing the system of records entitled "IRS 42.012-Combined Case Control File" from the table.

Appendix A to subpart A of Part 1 (FOIA) is being amended to update the titles of those officials who have been identified for receipt of FOIA requests, administrative appeals, and appellate determinations for requests for expedited processing.

Appendix A to subpart C of Part 1 (Privacy Act) is being amended to update the offices or titles of those who receive Privacy Act requests, requests for amendment of records or administrative appeal of an initial determination not to amend a record. In addition, the instructions found in this appendix for delivering requests personally to the Main Treasury Building are being deleted because of the increased security requirements caused by Treasury's proximity to the White House.

These regulations are being published as a final rule because the amendments do not impose any requirements on any member of the public and do not alter the procedures relating to the way in which the Departmental Offices currently handle FOIA and PA obligations. These amendments are the most efficient means for the Treasury Department to implement its internal requirements for complying with the FOIA and the Privacy Act. Accordingly, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) and (d)(3), the Department of the Treasury finds good cause that prior notice and other public procedure with respect to this rule are impracticable and unnecessary and finds good cause for making this rule effective on the date of publication in the Federal Register.

In accordance with Executive Order 12866, it has been determined that this final rule is not a "significant regulatory action" and, therefore, does not require a Regulatory Impact Analysis.

The regulation will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, it is determined that this final rule does not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132.

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.
