

III. Discussion

The Commission, when adopting Rule 17g-5(c)(1), noted that it intended to monitor how the prohibition operates in practice, particularly with respect to asset-backed securities, and whether exemptions may be appropriate.² The Commission has previously granted three temporary exemptions from Rule 17g-5(c)(1), including one on June 28, 2008 to Realpoint, as Morningstar was formerly known, in connection with its initial registration as an NRSRO ("Realpoint Exemptive Order").³ The Commission noted several factors in granting that exemption, including the fact that the revenue in question was earned prior to the adoption of the rule, the likelihood of smaller firms such as Realpoint being more likely to be affected by the rule, Realpoint's expectation that the percentage of total revenue provided by the relevant client would decrease, and the increased competition in the asset-backed securities class that could result from Realpoint's registration. In granting the Realpoint Exemptive Order, the Commission also noted that an exemption would further the primary purpose of the Credit Rating Agency Reform Act of 2006 ("Rating Agency Act") as set forth in the Report of the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs accompanying the Rating Agency Act: To "improve ratings quality for the protection of investors and in the public interest by fostering accountability, transparency, and competition in the credit rating industry".⁴ Previously, on February 11, 2008, the Commission, citing the same factors it later set forth in the Realpoint Exemptive Order, issued a similar order granting LACE LLC ("LACE") a temporary exemption from the requirements of Rule 17g-5(c)(1) in connection with LACE's registration as an NRSRO ("LACE Exemptive Order").⁵ Most recently, the Commission issued an order granting Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc. ("Kroll"), formerly known as LACE, a temporary, limited and conditional exemption from Rule 17g-5(c)(1) allowing Kroll to enter the market for rating structured finance products ("Kroll Exemptive Order").⁶ In this order, the Commission noted that an exemption is consistent with the Commission's goal of improving ratings quality for the protection of investors and in the public interest by fostering accountability, transparency, and competition in the credit rating industry.

The Commission believes that a temporary, limited and conditional exemption allowing Morningstar to expand in the market for rating structured finance products on an issuer-paid basis is consistent with the Commission's goal of improving ratings quality for the protection of investors and in the public interest by fostering accountability, transparency, and competition in the credit rating industry. In order to maintain this exemption, Morningstar will be required to publicly disclose in Exhibit 6 to Form NRSRO, as applicable, that the firm received more than 10% of its net revenue in fiscal years 2011 and 2012 from a client or clients that paid it to rate asset-backed securities. This disclosure is designed to alert users of credit ratings to the existence of this specific conflict and is consistent with exemptive relief the Commission has previously granted to Realpoint, LACE and Kroll. In addition to Morningstar's existing obligations as an NRSRO to maintain policies, procedures, and internal controls, by the terms of this order, Morningstar will also be required to maintain policies, procedures, and internal controls specifically designed to address the conflict created by exceeding the 10% threshold. Furthermore, the exemption would also require that revenue from a single client does not exceed 25% of Morningstar's total net revenue for either fiscal year 2011 or 2012.

Section 15E(p) of the Exchange Act, as added by Section 932(a)(8) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, requires Commission staff to conduct an examination of each NRSRO at least annually. As part of this annual examination regimen for NRSROs, Commission staff will closely review Morningstar's activities with respect to managing this conflict and meeting the conditions set forth below and will consider whether to recommend that the Commission take additional action, including administrative or other action.

The Commission therefore finds that a temporary, limited and conditional exemption allowing Morningstar to expand in the market for rating structured finance products on an issuer-paid basis is consistent with the Commission's goal, as established by the Rating Agency Act, of improving ratings quality by fostering accountability, transparency, and competition in the credit rating industry, and is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and is consistent with the protection of investors, subject to Morningstar's making public disclosure of the conflict created by exceeding the 10% threshold; its maintenance of policies, procedures and internal controls to address that conflict; and that revenue from a single client does not exceed 25% of Morningstar's total net revenue for either the fiscal year ending December 31, 2011 or the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012.

IV. Conclusion

Accordingly, pursuant to Section 36 of the Exchange Act,

It is hereby ordered that Morningstar Credit Ratings, LLC, formerly known as Realpoint LLC, is exempt from the conflict of interest prohibition in Exchange Act Rule 17g-5(c)(1) until January 1, 2013, with respect to any revenue derived from issuer-paid ratings, provided that: (1) Morningstar Credit Ratings, LLC publicly discloses in Exhibit 6 to Form NRSRO, as applicable, that the firm received more than 10% of its total net revenue in fiscal year 2011 or 2012 from a client or clients; (2) in addition to fulfilling its existing obligations as an NRSRO to maintain policies, procedures, and internal controls, Morningstar Credit Ratings, LLC also maintains policies, procedures, and internal controls specifically designed to address the conflict created by exceeding the 10% threshold; and (3) revenue from a single client does not exceed 25% of Morningstar's total net revenue for either the fiscal year ending December 31, 2011 or the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012.

By the Commission.

Elizabeth M. Murphy,
Secretary.
