SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section I of this document describes the organization and functions of the Office of Finance and Budget. That organization has not undergone major change since the October 12, 2006 (71 FR 60165), publication of the previous redelegation of authority to Office of Finance and Budget, with the exception that the Office of Evaluation has been moved under the jurisdiction of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Risk Management and Regulatory Affairs. Therefore this publication does not include the Office of Evaluation within the Finance and Budget Organization.

Section II of this notice describes the authority redelegated to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget and the Associate Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget. With the exception of the addition of the position of Associate Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget and certain minor editorial changes, these redelegations remain substantively the same as those published in the October 12, 2006, notice.

Section I. Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget: Organization

Three offices report to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance and Budget. These are the (1) Office of Budget and Field Resources; (2) Office of Asset Sales; and (3) Office of the Housing—FHA Comptroller. The following is a brief summary of each of these offices' functions.

A. The Office of Budget and Field Resources

The Office of Budget and Field Resources is responsible for the formulation, presentation, and execution of the Office of Housing's program and administrative budgets. This includes fund assignments and funds control, financial resource management, coordination of financial resources in support of field operations, and budget analysis and reporting. The Office of Budget and Field Resources is responsible for analyzing and evaluating the financial and budgetary impact of new or revised Office of Housing programs and policies, proposed legislation, and new or revised OMB, GAO, or Treasury guidance. Finally, the Director of the Office of Budget and Field Resources is Housing's Funds Control Officer. The responsibilities and duties of personnel within the Office of Budget and Field Resources pertain to internal HUD matters, do not require rendering decisions that bind HUD in relation to external clients and customers and, therefore, do not require delegations of authority.

B. Office of Asset Sales

The Office of Asset Sales oversees the disposition of mortgage notes acquired by Housing upon a default by the mortgagor and assignment of the note to FHA in return for the payment of a claim. The Office of Asset Sales is responsible for the sale of single family, multifamily, nursing home and hospital notes in the manner most advantageous to the federal government and supportive of the mission of the agency. The Office of Asset Sales develops alternative disposition methods that will reduce the acquisition and holding costs of these assets while increasing recovery upon sale.

C. Office of the Housing—FHA Comptroller

The Office of the Housing—FHA Comptroller is a Headquarters operation. The Office of the Housing—FHA Comptroller contains one field component, the Financial Operations Center, located in Albany, New York, and three major offices in Washington, DC

(1) The Office of Financial Service. The Office of Financial Services is comprised of three Headquarters divisions, and one field component, the Financial Operations Center, which is located in Albany, New York. The Office of Financial Services provides the policy direction, review, and coordination required to collect mortgage insurance premiums, to provide the financial services required to support FHA's multibillion dollar Single Family, Multifamily, and Title I insurance portfolios, and to provide the financial support necessary to manage FHA's asset management and disposition programs. The Office of Financial Services collects and maintains financial data necessary to generate accurate accounting entries to the General and Subsidiary ledgers and FHA's financial statements. The Office of Financial Services supports the systems and staff needed to maintain the insurance operations for FHA programs. The Office of Financial Services provides policy guidance and oversight for FHA's debt management and due diligence activities in the Financial Operations Center and supports FHA's asset sales programs. A summary of the functions of each division and of the Financial Operations Center follows:

(a) The Single Family Insurance Operations Division. This Division is responsible for providing financial management services to FHA approved lenders that originate and/or service FHA Single Family insured mortgages. The Single Family Insurance Operations Division maintains insurance records for approximately 32 million active or terminated Single Family FHA-insured loans. The Single Family Insurance Operations Division collects the mortgage insurance premiums and processes refunds of overpayments and unearned mortgage insurance premiums.

(b) The Single Family Post Insurance Division. This Division is responsible for providing processing functions necessary to support the FHA single family asset acquisition, management, and disposition operations. The Single Family Post Insurance Division directs and coordinates all operating requirements, systems development, and reporting functions requirements for its areas of responsibility. The Single Family Post Insurance Division provides servicing support, claims processing, and asset disposition processing. It also provides contractor oversight as appropriate.

(c) The Multifamily Financial Operations Division. This Division is responsible for performing the financial management services necessary for the servicing of all multifamily, insured mortgages in the FHA portfolio and the support of the approved lenders that hold FHA-insured mortgages. The Multifamily Financial Operations Division is also responsible for the servicing of HUD-held Multifamily mortgages and the payment of claims for Multifamily defaulted mortgages. These responsibilities include collection of insurance premiums, management of escrow accounts, payments of preservation and protection expenses, and recording of mortgage satisfactions.

(d) The Financial Operations Center. The Financial Operations Center (Center) is responsible for providing policy guidance, system support, and general oversight of FHA debt management, collection, and due diligence/asset liquidation activities for FHA Assets not elsewhere administered. The Center is responsible for all financial servicing duties in connection with administering the FHA Title I loan program.

(2) The Office of Financial Analysis and Reporting. The Office of Financial Analysis and Reporting is comprised of three Headquarters Divisions. The Office of Financial Analysis and Reporting (OFAR) is responsible for FHA financial management and reporting as well as providing policy direction, review, and coordination of the budgetary and accounting responsibilities for the Office of Housing-FHA Comptroller. OFAR accumulates, summarizes, and reconciles all of the FHA transactions received from more than 15 subsidiary (feeder) systems that capture the Single Family, Multifamily, HECM and Title I insurance activities. OFAR also is responsible for maintaining FHA's internal control framework as well as monitoring budget execution to ensure obligations and expenditures do not exceed authorized levels. OFAR consolidates all of these activities for presentation in FHA's Annual Management Report. In addition, OFAR oversees cash management functions and FHA investments. A description of the three divisions' functions follows.

(a) Financial Analysis and Controls Division. This Division is responsible for developing financial control procedures, performing financial analysis of accounting information, and monitoring and controlling the FHA budget execution process. It also is responsible for managing subsidy flows and borrowings to include borrowing needs, repayments and interest calculations.

(b) General Ledger Division. This Division is responsible for the preparation of all the cash accounting, proprietary accounting, and budgetary accounting entries that update the FHA general ledger. This includes all daily transactions and adjusting entries at the end of each accounting period, including entries required by Credit Reform and budgetary accounting.

(c) The Financial Reporting Division. This Division is responsible for accounting and financial reporting activities for FHA programs. The division classifies, summarizes, analyzes and reports accounting and budgetary transactions for FHA activities. In addition, the division prepares financial reports as required by the Department of Treasury and the Office of Management and Budget and provides guidance and interpretation of guidelines and standards set forth by the Department of Treasury, the Office of Management and Budget and other government agencies. The Division monitors and prepares responses to financial audits and performs certain liaison functions in connection with program audits. (Audits may be performed by both internal and external agencies.)

(3) Office of Systems and Technology. The Office of Systems and Technology coordinates the development and maintenance of integrated financial and management information systems necessary for accounting and management of the Housing and FHA programs.

DATES: Effective Date: June 5, 2012.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Housing legislation and programs are implemented and administered by the Office of Housing. However, in some instances, the nature of a statute or program, or component thereof, requires another HUD office to conduct the program or participate in its administration. On October 12, 2006 (71 FR 60168), the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner (Assistant Secretary for Housing) redelegated certain authority to the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO) and the Office of the General Counsel (General Counsel) and revoked all prior redelegations from the Assistant Secretary for Housing to these HUD offices.

The October 12, 2006, publication also reiterated and updated the authority previously redelegated to the General Counsel. (That previous notice of redelegation of authority was published on March 12, 2004 (69 FR 11880).

Today's notice reaffirms the authority previously redelegated by the Assistant Secretary for Housing to the General Counsel. Please note that the redelegation of authority to the General Counsel does not affect the authority of the Mortgagee Review Board, described in 24 CFR 30.35, or of the Assistant Secretary for Housing to initiate civil money penalty actions.

In addition, today's notice revokes authority previously redelegated by the Assistant Secretary for Housing to the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity. Previously, certain programmatic regulation authorities exercised by the Secretary of HUD over the Government Sponsored Enterprises (GSEs) pursuant to the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992 (FHEFSSA), 12 U.S.C 4501 et seq., had been delegated to the Assistant Secretary for Housing. Certain of these oversight requirements involving affordable housing goals were implemented by the Office of Housing; certain other oversight requirements involving fair housing performance by the GSEs were implemented by the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO) pursuant to a redelegation to that office by the Assistant Secretary for Housing. At this time, regulatory authority over the GSEs has been vested in the Federal Housing Finance Agency pursuant to the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 (Pub. L. 110-289, approved July 30, 2008) except for certain fair housing requirements which fall wholly within the purview of the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity. Therefore, this notice revokes the previous October 2006 redelegation of authority from the Assistant Secretary for Housing to the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity. By separate notice HUD will publish a
