

On July 18, 2012, ChriMar and Avaya filed a joint motion to terminate respondent Avaya from the investigation based on settlement. The Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the motion and the remaining respondents did not oppose the motion. On August 1, 2012, the ALJ issued Order No. 23 granting the motion. ChriMar and Avaya represented that there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied, between them. The ALJ found that there is no evidence that the settlement agreement would have an adverse impact on the public interest. No petitions for review of Order No. 23 were filed.

On July 20, 2012, ChriMar filed a motion for termination of the investigation in its entirety based on withdrawal of the complaint against respondents Cisco, Extreme and HP. Cisco, Extreme, HP and the Commission investigative attorney filed responses in support of the motion. On August 1, 2012, the ALJ granted ChriMar's motion. Order No. 24. The ALJ found that there is good cause for termination based on withdrawal of the complaint. In addition, the ALJ stated that he is not aware of "extraordinary circumstances" that would preclude granting the motion to terminate. No petitions for review of Order No. 24 were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the IDs.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in section 210.42–44 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42–44).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 27, 2012.

Acting Secretary to the Commission.
