7. In addition to the foregoing paragraphs pertaining to the sale and consumption of alcohol, the consumption and possession of alcoholic beverages where no sale is involved is hereby authorized only in areas within the Rancheria with overnight accommodations, specifically the RV Park, the individual hotel rooms of the Jackson Rancheria Casino & Hotel, and private homes located on the Rancheria, including possession while specifically en route to these areas. All such consumption and possession shall comply with all applicable tribal, federal and state laws and regulations. For purposes of this paragraph 7, "where no sale is involved" is defined as consumption or possession of alcohol where no money is requested or paid.

8. This ordinance updates, consolidates, and replaces Tribal Council Ordinance No. 99-04 enacted in 1999 to govern the limited sale of alcoholic beverages at the Tribe's Conference Center and Tribal Council Ordinance No. 2008-01 enacted in 2008 to govern the limited sale of alcoholic beverages at the Tribe's General Store. 1. If any provision or application of this ordinance is determined by review to be invalid, such adjudication shall not be held to render ineffectual the remaining portions of this title or to render such provisions inapplicable to other persons or circumstances.

2. This ordinance may only be amended by a majority vote of the Tribal Council.

3. Nothing in this ordinance in any way limits, alters, restricts or waives the Tribe's sovereign immunity from unconsented suit or action.

The Federal Aviation Administration no longer needs the lands for air navigation purposes.

DATES: Effective Date: November 26, 2012.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Aviation Administration has determined that approximately 1,905 acres of Air Navigation Site No. 189 is excess to its needs and has requested a partial revocation of the withdrawal. Upon revocation, the State of Alaska selection applications made under the Alaska Statehood Act and the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act become effective without further action by the State. While the land remains in Federal ownership, there is no significant restriction on subsistence uses. If the lands are ultimately conveyed to the State of Alaska pursuant to the Alaska Statehood Act, that conveyance will not result in a significant restriction on subsistence. Even if any such restriction would result upon conveyance of the land to the State, conveyance of the land is authorized by Section 810(c) of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act.
