Under the 2011 ANSI Standard, the Commission tailored its existing disclosure requirements to address new situations that may arise. Specifically, the Commission adopted a requirement to inform users about any operations in handsets that a manufacturer may have tested under the 2011 version of the ANSI Standard and found not to meet hearing aid compatibility criteria for those operations. The Commission also adopted a requirement to make disclosure about any handsets that have not been tested for the inductive coupling capability of Voice over Long Term Evolution (VoLTE) transmissions.

The Commission is now modifying the FCC Form 655 to collect information that is relevant to the newly effective provisions of the rule and to clarify and streamline existing fields. Mr. Willard Ross Lanham

Law Office of Stephen N. Preziosi P.C.

New York, NY 10018

Re: Notice of Debarment, File No. EB-12-IH-0847

Dear Mr. Lanham:

The Federal Communications Commission (Commission) hereby notifies you that, pursuant to Section 54.8 of its rules, you are prohibited from participating in activities associated with or relating to the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism (E-Rate program) for three years from either the date of your receipt of this Notice of Debarment or of its publication in the Federal Register, whichever is earlier in time (Debarment Date).<sup>1</sup>

On July 27, 2012, the Commission's Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) sent you a Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceeding (Notice of Suspension)<sup>2</sup> that was published in the Federal Register on August 13, 2012.<sup>3</sup> The Notice of Suspension suspended you from participating in activities associated with or relating to the E-Rate program. It also described the basis for initiating debarment proceedings against you, the applicable debarment procedures, and the effect of debarment.

As discussed in the Notice of Suspension, in March 2012 you were convicted of one count of theft of federal funds and three counts of mail fraud in connection with your activities as a consultant for the New York City Department of Education (DOE), which included managing Project Connect, an E-Rate funded project.<sup>4</sup> As a DOE consultant, you defrauded the E-Rate program by, among other things, inflating consultant fees and bundling those charges with eligible services on invoices billed to DOE for work unrelated to Project Connect.<sup>5</sup> As a result of your scheme, DOE was fraudulently billed more than $3.6 million for Project Connect between 2002 and 2008, of which you profited approximately $1.7 million.<sup>6</sup> Pursuant to Section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules, your conviction of criminal conduct in connection with the E-Rate program is the basis for this debarment.<sup>7</sup>

In accordance with the Commission's debarment rules, you were required to file with the Commission any opposition to your suspension or its scope, or to your proposed debarment or its scope, no later than 30 calendar days from either the date of your receipt of the Notice of Suspension or of its publication in the Federal Register, whichever date occurred first.<sup>8</sup> The Commission did not receive any such opposition from you.

For the foregoing reasons, you are debarred from participating in activities associated with or related to the E-Rate program for three years from the Debarment Date.<sup>9</sup> During this debarment period, you are excluded from participating in any activities associated with or related to the E-Rate program, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the E-Rate program, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the E-Rate program.<sup>10</sup>

Sincerely,

Theresa Z. Cavanaugh,
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau.
