- III. Contents of Filing
- IV. Notice of Commission Action
- V. Ordering Paragraphs

I. Introduction

In accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3641 and 39 CFR 3035.3, the Postal Service filed notice of its intent to conduct a market test of an experimental product called Global eCommerce Marketplace (GeM) Merchant.¹ GeM Merchant would allow domestic online merchants to offer their international customers the ability, at the time of purchase, to prepay the estimated duties and taxes that the foreign country's customs agency will assess upon the shipment's arrival in the foreign destination. Notice at 2.

II. Background

According to the Postal Service, GeM Merchant constitutes a novel eCommerce service for domestic online merchants and their international customers. Id. The Postal Service explains that at the time of purchase, GeM Merchant would allow international customers of domestic online merchants to prepay estimated duties and taxes. Id. The Postal Service describes that the domestic merchant will receive the order and will prepare the item for domestic shipment to the GeM processing facility. Id. After the item arrives at the GeM processing facility, the Postal Service indicates that it or its supplier will inspect the item for verification and security, as well as prepare and arrange for the item's international shipment and delivery to the overseas address. Id.

A. Nature and Scope of the Proposed GeM Merchant Market Test

The Postal Service intends to offer GeM Merchant to a limited number of domestic online merchants through negotiated service agreements (NSAs) that would include, but not be limited to, localization, export compliance, delivery speed, and targeted marketing features. Id. Through the market test, the Postal Service plans to assess GeM Merchant's revenue potential, competitive price points, and potential for expansion. Id.

The Postal Service asserts that the proposed GeM Merchant market test would likely benefit the public by meeting the demands of domestic online merchants and their international customers. Id. at 7. The Postal Service anticipates that the GeM Merchant product would contribute to the Postal Service's financial stability by generating more outbound international package delivery opportunities. Id. at 7–8.

1. Duration

The Postal Service plans to begin the market test on or shortly after April 30, 2016, to run for 2 calendar years. Id. at 6. After determining the actual start date, the Postal Service intends to file a notice with the Commission providing the definite start date. Id. at 6 n.4. During the 2-year market test period, the Postal Service intends to offer NSAs with standard 1-year terms to domestic online merchants. Id. at 6. The Postal Service requests that the Notice serve as an application for extension under 39 U.S.C. 3641(d) for any NSAs that have terms that extend beyond the 2-year period of the market test. Id. The Postal Service represents the extension would be limited to satisfying existing contractual obligations and that it would not initiate any new agreements with merchants after the 2-year period of the market test. Id. at 6–7. If the market test is successful, the Postal Service states that it would seek permanent product status for GeM Merchant. Id. at 7.

2. Geographic Markets

According to the Postal Service, because GeM Merchant is an international product offered to select domestic merchants through NSAs rather than a retail service offered to the American public, the geographical scope analysis under 39 CFR 3035.3(a)(2)(iv) is not germane to this market test. Id. The Postal Service represents that it intends to offer GeM Merchant using two processing locations and to execute contracts with few merchants, i.e., less than 1 percent of the overall domestic merchant target segment. Id.

3. Revenues

The Postal Service does not request a waiver of the $10 million, as adjusted for inflation, annual revenue limitation at this time. Id.; see 39 U.S.C. 3641(e). If market test revenues approach the cap, the Postal Service states that it will submit an application for exemption from the $10 million limitation under 39 U.S.C. 3641(e)(2) and 39 CFR 3035.16. Notice at 7.

4. Data Collection Plan

The Postal Service proposes to report the costs, revenues, and volumes associated with each agreement on a
